MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

Credentials for all Boston College home football games are issued to working media only and should be requested as early as possible. Please direct credential requests to Chris Cameron via email (cameroc@bc.edu) or Fax (617-552-4903) at least two weeks in advance of all home games.

Boston College follows the guidelines set forth by the NCAA in governing the issuance of credentials. Season credentials will be issued only to daily newspapers and television/radio stations that cover Boston College on a regular basis. Otherwise, additional television/radio stations, weekly newspapers and Internet services will be granted credentials on a single-game, space-available basis.

Assignment of working press, scouting seats and photo access will be allocated according to the following priorities:

1. Frequency of coverage of teams involved;
2. Deadline and transmission requirements; and
3. Circulation.

If time permits, credentials will be mailed; they also may be picked up in the Media Relations office. All others may be claimed at the Media Will Call window at Gate C.

PRESS PARKING

Press parking is located on the top level of the Commonwealth Avenue parking garage. A limited number of parking passes will be available for each game. It is recommended that parking pass holders arrive no later than one hour prior to kickoff to ensure a parking space.

Media members holding press parking passes must enter through the main gate of the University on Commonwealth Avenue and follow the signs for the Media Parking area.

PRESS FACILITIES

Located on the west (campus) side of the Alumni Stadium playing field, the BC press box features seats for writers and scouts, a network television broadcast area, five radio booths and a photo deck.

Writers, scouts and game operations personnel will be assigned to the sixth floor level of the press box and television film crews, radio crews and home and visiting coaches will be on the fifth floor level.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photographers (both still and television) are permitted to work along the sidelines except for the marked area reserved for the team personnel only. This rule is strictly enforced. Television and film crews also may shoot from the photo deck, located on the fifth floor of the press box.

Photographers and videographers must wear issued identification vests, which may be obtained with a valid photo I.D. at the Media Will Call booth at Gate C.

PHOTOGRAPHER/VIDEOGRAPHER WORK AREA

A photography/videography work area is located in the Media Suite on the first floor of Conte Forum, adjacent to the west concourse of Alumni stadium. Wireless Internet connections, Ethernet ports, telephone and electrical access, along with work space, are provided. Check with the Media Will Call attendant at Gate C for directions.

RADIO BROADCASTS

Radio booths are available for the visiting commercial and student stations on the fifth floor of the press box. Telephone lines have been pre-installed in each booth. Stations wishing to broadcast a game should contact the BC Media Relations office at 617-552-3004 at least two weeks prior to the contest. The fee is $75 per line.

TV BROADCASTS

A 21 x 21 permanent network television broadcast booth is located at the midfield point on the fifth floor of the press box. This location, along with permanent camera locations on the 20-yard-line points, the north end zone and the field, have been pre-wired with multiple tri-axial cable drops. Any network production unit televising a game or event from either Alumni Stadium or Conte Forum must use this pre-installed cable.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

The Boston College locker room is closed to all members of the media for all games, home and away. Head coach Frank Spaziani and requested players will be available following a brief cooling-off period. Spaziani will address the media in the football meeting room in the Yawkey Athletics Center. BC press box personnel will provide instructions for accessing the area.

Media wishing to interview players should notify appropriate members of the BC Media Relations staff prior to the conclusion of the game. Every effort will be made to bring requested players to the interview room.

Visiting teams will conduct their postgame interviews in the Conte Forum Media Center, located on the first floor and accessible via the north elevator.

FRANK SPAZIANI CONFERENCE CALL

Coach Frank Spaziani conducts a media conference call at 3 p.m. each Sunday during football season. Contact the Media Relations office for the number.

Spaziani also participates in the weekly ACC teleconference each Wednesday. Media wishing to participate should call the ACC office for the number.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

Media members wishing to interview members of the BC football team must arrange all interviews through the Media Relations office. In general, interviews during game weeks will be arranged between Noon-2:00 p.m. on Wednesdays (print media) and 2:50-3:20 p.m. on Wednesdays or Thursdays (electronic media). Please request all interviews at least 24 hours in advance. Players will not be available to the media for post-practice interviews.

PRACTICES

In general, BC practices are closed to the media and general public. Videographers or photographers wishing to shoot practice may do so during the first four practice periods on Wednesdays and Thursdays (please contact the Media Relations office in advance).

COLLEGEPRESSBOX.COM

collegepressbox.com is the official media website for ACC football. Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides and more for the conference and each of its 12 member schools throughout the season. Login information will be distributed to accredited media or you can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.

OUTLOOK

COACHES

2010 EAGLES

2010 OUTLOOK

First-year head coach Frank Spaziani and the Eagles defied critics last fall and finished with an 8-5 record and went 5-3 in the ACC Atlantic Division, which put them in second place after being picked to finish last in the preseason.

The story line for weeks prior to this season will be the health of senior LB Mark Herzlich. It could be the best comeback story in college football if he can run onto the field on September 4 after defeating Ewing's sarcoma, a rare form of bone cancer. Herzlich was an All-American and the 2008 ACC Defensive Player of the Year before the disease sidelined him all of last year.

The spring semester marked the arrival of three new faces in QBs Josh Bordner and Chase Rettig and LB Kevin Pierre-Louis. Bordner and Rettig got an early start and will compete against Mike Marscovetra and returning starter Dave Shinskie while Pierre-Louis gained early knowledge from one of the best linebacker corps in the ACC.

The quarterbacks will have plenty of support from the offensive line, which lost just one starter, and RB Montel Harris who received All-ACC second-team honors in the fall. Shinskie and company, despite losing a few seniors to graduation, will have talented receivers to throw to in Colin Larmond, Jr., Billy Flutie, Chris Pantale and Lars Anderson.

The defense lost the services of five fifth-year seniors but will be able to fill the holes. Austin Giles graduated from the defensive line, but senior Brad Newman and sophomore Bryan Murray both have experience there along with junior Kaleb Ramsey. The loss of two-time captain Mike McLaughlin will be softened by the possibility of Herzlich being back and Jim Noel spelled Marcellus Bowman last year at strong safety. CB Roderick Rollins is also gone, but sophomores Donnie Fletcher and Isaac Johnson have significant experience in the secondary.

QUARTERBACK

Lettermen Returning: 1 • Lettermen Lost: 0
Starters Returning: 1 • Starters Lost: 0

For the first time since Matt Ryan's senior season in 2007, the Eagles will welcome back a starting quarterback. Dave Shinskie, the 25-year-old former baseball player, set freshman records with 2,049 yards and 15 touchdown passes.

He will still have to compete against a few very talented arms behind him. Mike Marscovetra ended the season second on the depth chart and played well in some mop-up time at Virginia Tech, completing 10 of 16 passes for 114 yards and two touchdowns.

Josh Bordner and Chase Rettig also enrolled in the spring semester to get ahead on the system and push for time behind center. Bordner was an All-State player in Maryland who threw for over 2,100 yards as a senior and had 28 total touchdowns (18 passing). Rettig played in the 2010 All-American Under Armour game and was an all-state selection in California who threw for 1,748 yards and 18 scores as a senior.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Lettermen Returning: 7 • Lettermen Lost: 1
Starters Returning: 4 • Starters Lost: 1

For the second straight season, BC loses just one starter from the offensive line. This time, it was captain Matt Tennant, who started the last 41 games at center.

The Eagles have options to replace him, however, as Nathan Richman will make the move from left guard to the middle. Redshirt freshman Ian White was second on the depth chart in the spring. No matter how the line looks in the fall, it will be experienced and explosive.

Left tackle Anthony Castonzo is the one receiving national accolades prior to the season. He was named to Lindy's preseason All-America first team and the Playboy Preseason All-America team.

Castonzo and the rest of the O-line will be opening holes for Montel Harris, who emerged as one of the best backs in the country last season. Harris had the fourth-most carries in the country (308) and the 10th-most rushing yards (1,457) and he recorded eight 100-yard games. The Eagles also ranked 39th in the country in sacks allowed (1.54).

TIGHT ENDS

Lettermen Returning: 3 • Lettermen Lost: 1
Starters Returning: 1 • Starters Lost: 0

The Eagles are young but experienced at the tight end spot and will feature the same faces for a couple of more years.

Chris Pantale started every game at tight end last fall and he caught 25 passes for 223 yards and a touchdown. His receptions and yards were third and fourth, respectively, among receivers.

Lars Anderson spent last season as the F-back in a revamped offense, utilized mostly for his blocking. He caught eight passes for 102 yards and a touchdown on the year. Jordon McMichael caught four passes off the bench, including a highlight reel touchdown grab against Wake Forest.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Lettermen Returning: 3 • Lettermen Lost: 5
Starters Returning: 0 • Starters Lost: 2

The wide receivers unit will have a very different look this year. The biggest loss is Rich Gunnell, who finished his career as the BC record holder in receiving yards. The Eagles also lost Justin Jarvis and Clarence Megwa to graduation.

Colin Larmond, Jr. will step into the spotlight as the go-to receiver. Larmond was second on the team with 29 catches, 596 yards, five touchdowns and a 45.8 yards per game average. He had four of BC's five longest receptions of the year.

Other talent will have to prove themselves between the lines including Billy Flutie, Clyde Lee and Donte Elliott. Flutie is slotted in as the other starter in the spring depth chart with Elliott backing him up. Lee was second on the other side behind Larmond. Johnathan Coleman and Ryan Lindsey could also make an important impact this year.

RUNNING BACKS

Lettermen Returning: 3 • Lettermen Lost: 1
Starters Returning: 1 • Starters Lost: 0

Montel Harris is well on his way to cementing himself as one of the best running backs Boston College has ever seen. He has broken both the freshman and sophomore rushing records and is already 10th on the all-time rushing list with 2,357 yards. Harris was named a SI.com All-America honorable mention and an All-ACC second-team performer after ranking second in the conference and 18th in the nation in rushing. He recorded eight 100-yard games and finished the season by eclipsing the century mark in each of the last five games.

Rolandan Finch proved himself as an efficient backup before he lost the second half of the season to mono. He carried the ball 28 times on the season for 134 yards and a score.

FB James McCluskey should be completely healthy for his senior season after battling back from a torn Achilles' he suffered last spring. He appeared in eight games in the fall.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Lettermen Returning: 6 • Lettermen Lost: 5
Starters Returning: 2 • Starters Lost: 2

The Eagles will have to replace two steady performers on the defensive line after Austin Giles and Jim Ramella graduated, but have the pieces to do so. Alex Albright will look to return with complete health to the left end spot and former wide receiver Ifeanyi Momah will back him up.

Bryan Murray is listed as the starter at left tackle with Kaleb Ramsey spelling him. Ramsey has been riddled by injuries in his first two seasons, but if he can stay healthy, would most likely see a lot of time on the line. Brad Newman is hoping to be the starter at right tackle with Conor O'Neal listed as his back-up.

Max Holloway is looking to break into the starting lineup as the right end with the experienced Dan Williams behind him.

LINEBACKERS

Lettermen Returning: 7 • Lettermen Lost: 3
Starters Returning: 2 • Starters Lost: 1

The stars of the defensive side of the ball should be the linebackers. BC lost one of its most consistent performers in captain Mike McLaughlin, but the possible return of Mark Herzlich will soften that blow. Couple that with breakout star Luke Kuechly and another returning starter in Mike Morrissey, and the Eagles could have one of the best units in the country.

Herzlich was diagnosed with Ewing's sarcoma, a rare form of bone cancer, in mid-May. His story touched the country and on ESPN College GameDay October 3, he announced he was cancer-free. Herzlich then had a metal rod inserted into right leg on November 23 to strengthen the bone and used spring ball to try to get back into playing shape.

Herzlich's absence was filled by the true freshman Kuechly, who came out of nowhere to become one of the best backers in the country. He was the ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year and an All-ACC first-team performer and also garnered numerous All-America honors. Kuechly's 12.15 tackles per game was the highest average by any rookie since the NCAA began tracking tackles in 2003.

Morrissey, a walk-on who gained a scholarship through his hard work in 2008, won the starting spot at the sam linebacker slot midway through the season. He finished the year with 37 tackles and seven tackles for a loss.

The first unit of linebackers is stacked, but so is the second. Highly-touted newcomer Kevin Pierre-Louis earned a spot on the two-deep behind Nick Clancy at the sam spot on the spring depth chart and the experienced Will Thompson is behind Kuechly in the middle. Darius Bagan, who saw a lot of time last season, is listed behind Morrissey.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Lettermen Returning: 7 • Lettermen Lost: 3
Starters Returning: 2 • Starters Lost: 2

Boston College lost its starting strong safety (Marcellus Bowman) and one of its cornerbacks (Roderick Rollins) to graduation but, as with the defensive line, it has experienced players to replace them.

Jim Noel, a true freshman in 2009, appeared in all 13 games as Bowman's backup and had 12 tackles and a pass break up. Dominick LeGrande will also be battling for a starting spot at strong safety. Both Donnie Fletcher and Isaac Johnson have spent a lot of time on the field in their two seasons at The Heights, and either could line up on the other side of DeLeon Gause.

Gause has been a mainstay at corner since arriving on campus in 2007. He has started 23 games in his career. Fletcher has played in all 27 games since his true freshman campaign in 2008 and Johnson played in 12 games last year after playing a bit with Fletcher in 2008.

SPECIALISTS

Lettermen Returning: 3 • Lettermen Lost: 3
Starters Returning: 1 • Starters Lost: 1

The Eagles will have a new kicker for the first time since Steve Aponavicius took over the starting duties in 2006. Ryan Quigley, who quietly emerged as one of the best punters in the ACC, could take over the kicking duties. The All-ACC honorable mention punter ranked fifth in the conference in punting average (40.8). He had 11 punts of 50 or more yards and pinned the opponent inside the 20-yard line 23 times which ranked third and second in the ACC, respectively.

Nate Freese redshirted last year and is listed as the backup to Quigley on the preseason depth chart. Freese was an AP All-Ohio Division I first-team honoree as a senior in high school.

The special teams unit also returns holder Billy Flutie and long snapper Sean Flaherty, who spent a lot of time on the field last year due to injuries to Jack Geiser.

HEAD COACH

FRANK SPAZIANI

2nd Year as Head Coach
14th Year at Boston College

He waited his turn. He got his shot. And if his first season as head coach of the Eagles is any indication, it was well worth the wait.

Never forsaking his modest, hard-working, blue-collar roots, Frank Spaziani served as the loyal soldier for so many years before getting the opportunity to take center stage in 2009. When he was named head football coach at Boston College, the room was filled not only with media, but with family and friends from the Athletics Department who were thrilled to see their humble and dry-witted friend, simply known as "Spaz," be rewarded for a career of loyalty and dedication.

The son of first-generation Italian-Americans Joseph and Regina Spaziani grew up in Clark, N.J., and never forgot his roots. The values of hard work, toughness, dedication, humility, loyalty and honesty he learned as a boy have formed the foundation for his coaching philosophy.

Although some New Englanders may consider Spaziani loyal to a fault – he is, after all, a devout and lifelong New York Yankees fan – few would fault a man for remaining true to his roots, especially when those values keep him grounded in a time of over-inflated salaries and egos in the football coaching world. His seriousness is balanced with a notorious sense of humor – he's been known to crack a joke or two. When asked at the Emerald Bowl press conference for his reaction when he heard the Eagles would be playing USC, he quipped, "The good news was we got the bowl bid; the bad news was that we got Southern Cal. That's like your mother-in-law driving off a cliff in your brand new Cadillac Escalade."

Each Thursday when he meets with beat writers to discuss the upcoming game, he's likely to start the conversation with baseball talk while the soundtrack of the hit Broadway show "Jersey Boys" plays in the background. But he knows when to get serious – and people know when he means business.

This Jersey boy would become the last player recruited to Penn State by a young assistant named Joe Paterno, who went on to become the head coach the next year. Talented in baseball as well, Spaziani was originally recruited as a quarterback but eventually became a defensive end and a team captain before serving as a graduate assistant for Paterno.

"He could be good at anything," Paterno said. "If he had gone into business, he'd be the president of the corporation. He's not afraid to work, and he's not afraid to make decisions."

His first season as head coach at Boston College required more than a few tough decisions. Although he hit the ground running, there were more than a few bumps in the road along the way. Senior linebacker and returning co-captain Mike McLaughlin tore his Achilles' tendon during a routine drill in the spring and was out indefinitely. In May, the entire program was dealt a devastating and sobering blow when its star player, linebacker Mark Herzlich, discovered he had cancer and would be unable to suit up for the 2009 season. The Eagles then lost the only quarterback with any playing experience, leaving the cupboard bare in the team's most important position.

By mid-summer, expectations were low; at the ACC's Operation Football in July, the league's media predicted the Eagles would finish dead last in the Atlantic Division. But a funny thing happened on the way to the cellar – the team overachieved. It finished with an 8-5 record, tied for second in the ACC Atlantic Division, and played in its 11th straight bowl game, giving national power USC all it could handle in the third-most-watched bowl game ever televised on ESPN.

Along the way, milestones were achieved and some young superstars emerged. True freshman linebacker Luke Kuechly was named ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year after coming out of nowhere to lead the league in tackles and averaging more tackles-per-game than any rookie since the NCAA began tracking the stat in 2003. Sophomore running back Montel Harris recorded eight 100-yard games and set the BC sophomore rushing record. Senior wide receiver Rich Gunnell and place-kicker Steve Aponavicius added their names to the record books.

McLaughlin battled to get back onto the playing field, and Dave Shinskie, the 25-year-old true freshman quarterback who came to BC after playing professional baseball, proved to be a consistent starter by season's end. Off the field, Herzlich waged a very public battle against cancer – and won. And the Eagles continued their proud tradition of achieving in the classroom, becoming one of only six FBS programs in the country to receive a Graduation Success Rate score of 90 or better.

"What we accomplished," Spaziani said, "where we started, all the potholes, all the situations, all the things we had to overcome, it was a testament to the kids and they should be very proud of what they did. To start with no quarterbacks who ever played in a game, no linebackers who ever played in a game, new staff, new coaches, new everything, to finish 8-5 is an accomplishment we should be proud of."

The 2010 season will mark Spaziani's 14th year on the BC coaching staff, having spent his first two seasons as the Eagles' running backs coach before serving as defensive coordinator for 10 seasons. Spaziani's reputation as an outstanding coach, in fact, was built upon a decade of producing one of the toughest defenses in college football. In 2008, the Eagles ranked in the top 10 in the nation in seven defensive categories, including interceptions (first, 26); turnovers gained (second, 36); total defense (fifth, 268.14 ypg.); red zone defense (sixth, 72%); first downs allowed (sixth, 14.71 pg.); rushing defense (seventh, 91.2 ypg.), and pass efficiency defense (98.81). The Eagles advanced to the ACC Championship Game for the second consecutive season. In addition, Herzlich was named ACC Defensive Player of the Year.

In 2007 Spaziani's defense ranked second in the nation and led the ACC in rushing defense, allowing just 75.5 yards per game. The BC defense also ranked second in the ACC in red zone defense, keeping opponents from scoring nearly 72 percent of the time. Senior free safety Jamie Silva was a consensus All-America first-team selection and was one of three finalists for the 2007 Jim Thorpe Award, which is given to the nation's top defensive back. Silva was MVP of the 2007 Champs Sports Bowl, in which he had two interceptions. Spaziani was part of a staff that led the Eagles to an 11-3 finish, the first BC team to win 11 games since 1940. The 2007 Eagles began the season 8-0 and were ranked No. 2 in the nation in both major polls. The team won the Atlantic Division of the ACC and went on to win an eighth consecutive bowl game, the longest active bowl game winning streak in America. The Eagles finished 10th in the final AP poll, BC's best finish since the 1984 season.

Spaziani was credited with BC's 25-24 win over Navy in the 2006 Meineke Car Care Bowl as he served as Interim Head Coach following the departure of Tom O'Brien. In 2006, Boston College led the ACC with five defensive touchdowns. The Eagles were third in the ACC in scoring defense and Jo-Lonn Dunbar was named National Defensive Player of the Week when he scored two of BC's three defensive touchdowns vs. Maryland. In 2005, BC led the ACC in rushing defense (90.8 ypg.) and red zone defense (25-39, 64.1%) and were third in scoring defense (15.9 ypg.). The 2004 Eagles were ranked in the top 10 nationally in scoring defense, top 20 in rushing defense and top 25 in pass efficiency defense. In 2003 BC was ranked second in the Big East in total defense and rushing defense. During the 2002 season, the Eagle defense was ranked 13th nationally in passing defense, 25th in pass efficiency defense, 23rd in scoring defense and 37th in total defense.

Spaziani joined the BC coaching staff after three seasons with the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League. During his coaching tenure at Calgary, he served two seasons as the defensive coordinator. Prior to his coaching stint at Calgary, he served as the defensive coordinator for two years with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers. Spaziani spent nine years as a member of the Virginia coaching staff, where he was defensive coordinator for his last five seasons in Charlottesville, after having been defensive backs coach for the first four.

Spaziani has been a member of coaching staffs for teams that have reached 21 bowl games, including the 2009 Emerald Bowl, the 2008 Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl, the 2007 Champs Sports Bowl, the 2006 Meineke Car Care Bowl, the 2005 MPC Computers Bowl, the 2004 Continental Tire Bowl, the 2003 Diamond Walnut San Francisco Bowl (BC), the 2002 Motor City Bowl (BC), the 2001 Music City Bowl (BC), the 2000 Aloha Bowl (BC), the 1999 Insight.com Bowl (BC), the 1990 Sugar Bowl (Virginia), the 1989 Citrus Bowl (Virginia), the 1987 All-American Bowl (Virginia), the 1984 Peach Bowl (Virginia), the 1981 Liberty Bowl (Navy) and the 1980 Garden State Bowl and 1978 Holiday Bowl (Navy).

Spaziani is a 1969 graduate of Penn State, where he was a star defensive end on the Nittany Lions teams that tied Florida State in the 1967 Gator Bowl and defeated Kansas in the 1969 Orange Bowl. He began his coaching career in 1969 as a graduate assistant to Joe Paterno at Penn State. After three years as an assistant high school coach, he became head coach at Hempstead (N.Y.) High School in 1973, and, a year later, at Raritan (N.J.) High. He joined head coach George Welsh as an offensive assistant at the U.S. Naval Academy in 1975 and went with Welsh from Annapolis to Virginia in 1982.

Frank and his wife, the former Laura Heikel, are the parents of three children, Joseph and twins Avery and Andrew.

ASSISTANT COACHES

BILL MCGOVERN

Defensive Coordinator
11th Year at Boston College

Bill McGovern is entering his 11th season and 14th overall with Boston College. McGovern was promoted to defensive coordinator in 2009 after serving for nine seasons as the Eagles' linebackers coach.

In 2009, faced with the challenge of losing senior linebacker Mike McLaughlin for several games with an Achilles' injury and ACC Defensive Player of the Year Mark Herzlich to cancer treatment, McGovern's defense rose to the occasion. Picked to finish last in the ACC's Atlantic Division in the preseason media poll, the young Eagles overachieved and finished with an 8-5 record and a second-place finish in the division.

The 2009 Eagles ranked second in the ACC in rushing defense, allowing just 103.2 rushing yards per game. The Eagles also ranked second in the league in red zone defense, third in scoring defense and fourth in total defense. True freshman linebacker Luke Kuechly was named ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year after coming out of nowhere to lead the league in tackles and averaging more tackles-per-game than any rookie since the NCAA began tracking the stat in 2003.

In 2008, McGovern coached a linebacking corps that was a key part of a defense that ranked fifth in the country and first in the ACC in total defense, allowing 286.14 yards per game. The BC defense ranked in the top 10 nationally in seven different categories including interceptions (first, 26), turnovers gained (second, 36), total defense (fifth, 286.14), red zone defense (sixth, .72), rush defense (seventh, 91.2), pass efficiency defense (seventh, 98.81) and first downs defense (sixth, 14.71).

McGovern developed Herzlich into one of the top linebackers in the country. In addition to being named ACC Defensive Player of the Year, he was a finalist for the Butkus Award, given annually to the nation's top linebacker. Herzlich was an All-ACC first-team honoree, a three-time conference player of the week, and a quarterfinalist for the Lott Trophy.

In 2007, McGovern oversaw a linebacking corps that included All-ACC second-team selection Jo-Lonn Dunbar and rising stars Herzlich, McLaughlin, Robert Francois and Kevin Akins. He helped coach a defense that ranked second in the nation and led the ACC in rush defense, allowing just 75.5 yards per game. The BC defense also ranked second in the ACC in red zone defense, keeping opponents from scoring nearly 72 percent of the time.

McGovern came to BC in 2000 after serving as defensive backs coach at Pittsburgh for three seasons. At Pitt, he coached two first-team All-Big East selections (Hank Poteat and Ramon Walker) in 1999. He began his coaching career in 1985 as freshman coach at the University of Pennsylvania. He served as a part-time coach at his alma mater, Holy Cross, from 1986-87 and defensive backs/kickers coach in 1991; defensive backs coach at the University of Massachusetts from 1987-90 and defensive coordinator 1992-93; and defensive backs coach at BC from 1994-96 (and interim defensive coordinator in 1995) before accepting the Pittsburgh position.

McGovern has become known as one of the top recruiters in the Northeast and his linebackers have received numerous ACC and Big East honors. McGovern has coached or recruited notable BC linebackers including Frank Chamberlin, Scott Bradley, Vinny Ciurciu, Josh Ott, Ricky Brown, Ray Henderson and Brian Toal. In 2004, Henderson (two-time Big East Defensive Player of the Week) topped the Big East with .5 interceptions per game (fourth in the nation) and Toal was named Big East Rookie of the Year.

A native of Oradell, N.J., McGovern was a four-year starter at defensive back for Holy Cross before his graduation in 1985. He set a single-season record for interceptions (11) for I-AA and was a consensus first-team All-America (I-AA) selection in 1985. He is a member of the Holy Cross Hall of Fame and has been named to the Bergen County (N.J.) All-Century Team.

McGovern has coached in 10 collegiate bowl games, including the 2007 Champs Sports Bowl, the 2006 Meineke Car Care Bowl, the 2005 MPC Computers Bowl, the 2004 Continental Tire Bowl, the 2003 Diamond Walnut San Francisco Bowl, the 2002 Motor City Bowl, the 2001 Music City Bowl, the 2000 Aloha Bowl, the 1994 Aloha Bowl (in his first stint at BC) and the 1997 Liberty Bowl with Pittsburgh.

McGovern lives in Ashland with his wife, Colleen, and daughters Amanda, Delainey and MacKenzie.

GARY TRANQUILL

Offensive Coordinator
2nd Year at Boston College

Gary Tranquill is beginning his second season as Boston College's offensive coordinator. He has more than 47 years of college and professional coaching experience.

In 2009, Tranquill had to overcome more obstacles than perhaps any coach in the country. He was coaxed out of retirement by Coach Frank Spaziani, who calls him "one of the best coaches in the country. I have coached with him and against him, and I like coaching with him better. He is the epitome of a teacher. He can coach players, and he can coach coaches. He does it all." When Tranquill took over in the spring, he was faced with the task of finding a starting quarterback among four players who had virtually no experience at all. Further, he faced an offensive line that had four different coaches in three years.

Things went from bad to worse when Dominique Davis – the only quarterback with any experience – was forced to transfer for academic reasons. Tranquill and his staff found and recruited 25-year-old true freshman Dave Shinskie, who had been playing minor league baseball for nearly seven years. Although the offense started slowly at the beginning of the season, Shinskie eventually won the full-time job as the starting signal caller, the offensive line gelled into a solid, cohesive unit, and several individuals excelled. Tranquill is one of the main reasons the Eagles, who were picked to finish last in the ACC's Atlantic Division in the league's preseason media voting, and were predicted to finish 2-10 by one heralded ESPN prognosticator, finished 8-5 and played in a bowl game for the 11th consecutive seasons.

Sophomore running back Montel Harris broke William Green's BC sophomore rushing record and reeled off eight consecutive 100-yard games. Harris earned numerous honors for his performances, including Walter Camp National Offensive Player of the Week, College Football Performance Awards National Player of the Week and ACC Offensive Back of the Week. Senior wide receiver Rich Gunnell broke Pete Mitchell's records to become BC's all-time receiving leader, and place-kicker Steve Aponavicius became BC's all-time scoring leader.

Before coming to BC, Tranquill was most recently the quarterbacks coach of the Rhein Fire in NFL Europe for the 2007 season.

Tranquill's experience as an offensive coordinator spans 14 seasons at five different schools and he was also the head coach at Navy for five years from 1982-86. He has worked with some of the best quarterbacks to come through the Atlantic Coast Conference during his stint at Virginia, including Scott Secules, Shawn Moore and Matt Blundin.

Before his time with the Rhein Fire, Tranquill was the offensive coordinator of the University of North Carolina from 2001-05. In his five years at Carolina, he coached Darian Durant and Ronald Curry, who set numerous passing records at UNC. Durant finished his career with 51 school records, including every major career passing mark. He finished first in career pass attempts, completions, touchdowns, career completion percentage, passing yards and total offense.

Tranquill had his second stint at the University of Virginia as offensive coordinator under George Welsh from 1999-00. He was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for Nick Saban's Michigan State Spartans from 1995-98. Michigan State averaged 161.5 yards rushing, 220.9 yards passing and 27.6 points per game during his tenure. The Spartans averaged almost 30 points per game in each of his last three seasons there, its top scoring averages of the decade.

During the 1994 season, Tranquill was the offensive coordinator for Frank Beamer at Virginia Tech. Before his stint with the Hokies, he coached the quarterbacks for the Cleveland Browns under Bill Belichick from 1991-93. In his first season with Cleveland, Bernie Kosar was one of the top quarterbacks in the league.

As Virginia's quarterbacks coach from 1987-90, he helped develop some of the top passers in conference history, including Secules and Moore. Moore was a first-team All-American, the ACC Player of the Year in 1990 and finished fourth in the Heisman Trophy balloting that season.

Tranquill got his start as a defensive coach for his alma mater, Wittenberg University, from 1962-69. He became Ball State's defensive coordinator in 1970 before heading to Bowling Green State to be the defensive coordinator for two years (1971-72). From 1973-76, he coached the quarterbacks and receivers at Navy under George Welsh. Tranquill was named the secondary coach for two seasons (1977-78) under legendary coach Woody Hayes at Ohio State. At West Virginia (1979-81) he spent one season as the defensive coordinator and two seasons as the offensive coordinator. In 1982, Tranquill succeeded his former boss, George Welsh, to become head coach at Navy and coached there for five years.

Tranquill is a 1962 graduate of Wittenberg, where he lettered four years in football and baseball. He was later inducted into Wittenberg's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1986.

DAVE BROCK

Tight Ends
2nd Year at Boston College

Dave Brock is entering his second season on the BC staff. Brock came to BC after serving two years at Kansas State and has 20 years of coaching experience, including six as an offensive coordinator.

In 2009, Brock helped develop tight ends Chris Pantale and Lars Anderson. Pantale had 25 catches for 223 yards and one touchdown while Anderson had eight catches for 102 yards and a TD. Brock was also instrumental in locating and recruiting quarterback Dave Shinskie, who came to BC after a career in professional baseball. Despite being picked to finish last in the ACC's Atlantic Division in preseason media voting, the 2009 Eagles finished with an 8-5 record, came within one win of playing in a third consecutive ACC Championship Game, and played in a bowl game for a school-record 11th consecutive season.

Brock spent the 2008 season as Kansas State's offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach after coaching the wide-outs in 2007. Kansas State ranked 18th nationally in passing (269.6) and 19th in scoring offense (34.9) under Brock's leadership.

A native of Moorestown, N.J., Brock's 20-year coaching career includes stops at North Carolina, Temple, Hofstra, Salisbury State and Western Connecticut State.

As offensive coordinator at Kansas State, Brock spearheaded a Wildcat offense that produced the 2008 Big 12 Offensive Newcomer of the Year in wide receiver Brandon Banks and Kansas State's most prolific passer in school history in quarterback Josh Freeman. Banks set a Wildcat junior record with 67 receptions and 1,049 yards, while Freeman became Kansas State's career leader in passing attempts, completions, yards, touchdowns and total offense in 2008.

In 2007, Brock tutored Kansas State's Jordy Nelson, who was a consensus All-American and Biletnikoff Award finalist, as well as Big 12 Offensive Newcomer of the Year Deon Murphy. Nelson, who became the Wildcats' first-ever offensive consensus All-American, ranked second in the nation in receptions (10.2) and receiving yards per game (133.8) en route to setting 11 Kansas State receiving records.

Kansas State, which set school records for passing yards, completions and attempts in a season, also ranked 20th nationally in passing offense (285.4) and 21st in scoring offense (35.2). The Wildcats finished the season with a 3,000-yard passer, a 1,600-yard receiver and a 1,000-yard rusher for the first time in school history.

Prior to Kansas State, Brock spent two years at North Carolina, where he served as the Tar Heels' assistant head coach/recruiting coordinator and wide receivers coach. While at UNC, he tutored two of the top wide receivers in Carolina history in Jarwarski Pollock and Jesse Holley. In 2005, Pollock became the all-time leading receiver at Carolina with 177 catches and Holley led the team with 47 receptions.

In 2006, Brock coached wide receiver Hakeem Nicks to honorable mention freshman All-America honors by The Sporting News as Nicks set UNC freshman records with 39 receptions for 660 yards and four touchdowns.

Prior to North Carolina, Brock was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for three seasons at Temple, where he directed a spread offense attack that made the Owls' offense one of the most exciting in the Big East. In 2004, Temple ranked third in the Big East in rushing, generating 173.0 yards on the ground per game. The Owls passed for 2,428 yards – the fourth-most in program history – and averaged 393.7 total yards per game. Quarterback Walter Washington ended the year ranked 11th nationally in total offense, 21st in scoring and as the nation's leader in rushing touchdowns by a QB. In 2003, the Owls threw for 2,697 yards – second-most in team history – and set school records for passing first downs (135) and total plays (859).

Brock served in various roles during seven seasons at Hofstra from 1995 through 2002, including running backs coach (1995), wide receivers coach/recruiting coordinator (1997-99), offensive coordinator (2000-01) and associate head coach (2002).

In 2001, Hofstra posted a 9-3 record and finished the season ranked No. 7 in FCS behind an offense that was second in the nation in total offense (491.0), fourth in passing offense (301.0) and fifth in scoring offense (37.9). In 2000, Hofstra finished the year ranked No. 7 with a 9-4 record and also ranked among the nation's top 20 in scoring offense, passing offense and total offense.

During Brock's last five seasons at Hofstra, the team averaged 35.8 points per game and 446.8 yards of total offense per contest.

Brock played linebacker at Ferrum (Va.) College before earning a bachelor of science degree in political science from Salisbury (Md.) State University. He began his coaching career as an assistant at Salisbury State in 1988, then served as secondary coach/recruiting coordinator at Western Connecticut State from 1991-93. He returned to Salisbury State in 1994 as the secondary coach and recruiting coordinator before joining the coaching staff at Hofstra in 1995.

Brock and his wife, Karen, have three sons - Henry, William, and Richard - and two daughters - Kate and Maggie.

JEFF COMISSIONG

Defensive Line
4th Year at Boston College

Defensive Line Coach Jeff Comissiong is beginning his fourth year as a member of the Boston College football staff.

In 2009, Comissiong coached a defensive line that helped the Eagles rank second in the ACC in rushing defense, allowing just 103.2 rushing yards per game. The Eagles also ranked second in the league in red zone defense, third in scoring defense and fourth in total defense. Despite being picked to finish last in the ACC's Atlantic Division in preseason media voting, the 2009 Eagles finished with an 8-5 record, came within one win of playing in a third consecutive ACC Championship Game, and played in a bowl game for a school-record 11th consecutive season.

In 2008, BC's defensive line was an important part of a unit that ranked in the top 10 nationally in seven different categories including interceptions (first, 26), turnovers gained (second, 36), total defense (fifth, 286.14), red zone defense (sixth, .72), rush defense (seventh, 91.2), pass efficiency defense (seventh, 98.81) and first down defense (sixth, 14.71).

In addition, Comissiong developed defensive tackles B.J. Raji and Ron Brace. Raji was named to the Associated Press All-America third team and was selected ninth overall by the Green Bay Packers in the 2009 NFL Draft. Both players were All-ACC selections and Brace was selected with the 40th overall pick in the second round of the draft by the New England Patriots.

In his first season (2007) on the BC staff, Comissiong coached a line that was part of a defense that ranked second in the nation and led the ACC in rush defense, allowing just 75.5 yards per game. The BC defense also ranked second in the ACC in red zone defense, which allowed opponents to score only 72 percent of the time.

Comissiong was part of a staff that led the Eagles to an 11-3 finish, the first BC team to win 11 games since 1940. The 2007 Eagles began the season 8-0 and were ranked No. 2 in the nation in both major polls. The team won the Atlantic Division of the ACC and went on to win an eighth consecutive bowl game, the longest active bowl game winning streak in America. The Eagles finished 10th in the final AP poll, BC's best finish since the 1984 season.

Comissiong came to Boston College from nearby Harvard University, where he coached in 2006. Before moving to Harvard, Comissiong worked as an assistant at The University of Maine for eight seasons.

Comissiong began his coaching career at Maine in 1996, serving as a defensive line assistant for two seasons. During this stint, Comissiong worked with Boston College Running Backs Coach Ben Sirmans, who was on the Maine staff from 1996 to 1999. From Maine, Comissiong moved on to Bates College, where he coached the defensive line in 1998 and 1999.

Comissiong returned to Maine in 2000, coaching the running backs and then the defensive line. In 2003, Comissiong was also given the duties of recruiting coordinator for the Maine program.

Upon his arrival at Harvard, Comissiong assumed more recruiting duties, overseeing recruitment in New York, New England, and Canada, as well as serving as the program's professional liaison. With Comissiong working with the defensive line, Harvard boasted the stingiest run defense in the Ivy League. The 66.5 YPG allowed was far and away the most impressive mark in the league, as was the 2.0 YPC allowed by the unit.

A four-year letterwinner in football, Comissiong graduated from Maine in 1997. Jeff, and his wife Alison, have two daughters, Jacey and Mya.

MIKE DAWSON

Special Teams
2nd Year at Boston College

Mike Dawson is entering his second year on the BC staff as special teams coach.

In 2009, Dawson coached place-kicker Steve Aponavicius, who became BC's all-time scoring leader with 290 points. Aponavicius also ranks first all-time in field goal percentage (.734) and extra points made (149) and is second in field goals. The Eagles led the ACC in field goal percentage (.929) and were 39-40 in PAT kicking. Punter Ryan Quigley became an All-ACC honorable mention performer with 11 punts of 50 or more yards. Quigley pinned the opponent inside the 20-yard line 23 times, which ranked second in the ACC.

Despite being picked to finish last in the ACC's Atlantic Division in preseason media voting, the 2009 Eagles finished with an 8-5 record, came within one win of playing in a third consecutive ACC Championship Game, and played in a bowl game for a school-record 11th consecutive season.

Before coming to BC, Dawson spent three seasons coaching the linebackers at Akron and has a total of 12 years of experience on the sidelines. During his time at Akron, Brion Stokes led the Zips in tackles in 2007, while Kevin Grant was third. Stokes, who ranked among the MAC top 10 in both tackles for loss (14.5) and sacks (5.5), was a second team All-Mid-American Conference pick as he finished his career with 38.5 TFL, second on the Akron all-time list. Grant was a third team All-MAC pick.

Dawson was an assistant at the University of New Hampshire for the previous six years where he served on both sides of the ball, including his final two seasons as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. He spent his second season at UNH in charge of the offensive line. In 2005, UNH was one of the top-ranked ranked teams in FCS and advanced to the national quarterfinals. Dawson spearheaded one of the top defenses in the country in 2005, as the Wildcats ranked 35th nationally in scoring defense (22.23 ppg) and led the nation in takeaways (45). UNH was also second in the Atlantic 10 in sacks (34) during the 2005 campaign. The Wildcats were co-champions of the A-10 that season for the first time since 1994 and posted a record of 21-5 from 2004-05.

A three-year starter at linebacker and defensive end at the University of Massachusetts, Dawson began his career as a defensive line coach at UMass-Lowell in the spring of 1998. He returned to his alma mater in the spring of 1999 before spending that fall as a graduate assistant at Pittsburgh.

Dawson also gained coaching experience on the defensive side of the ball at the University of Maine from July 1998 through March 1999. He graduated from UMass-Amherst in 1997 with a degree in sports management.

Dawson is married to the former Jodi Walters, who was an all-conference swimmer at UMass-Amherst. The couple has a son, Frankie, born in October of 2007.

RYAN DAY

Wide Receivers
4th Year at Boston College

Ryan Day enters his fourth season as the BC wide receivers coach.

In 2009, wide receiver Rich Gunnell broke the BC career receiving yards record against USC in the Emerald Bowl as he finished with 2,459 career yards. He is one of just eight BC players to ever eclipse the 2,000-yard mark. He broke Pete Mitchell's old record and also ranks second in career receptions (181). He ranked seventh in the ACC in receiving yards per game (67.7) and eighth in receptions per game (4.6). Despite being picked to finish last in the ACC's Atlantic Division in preseason media voting, the 2009 Eagles finished with an 8-5 record, came within one win of playing in a third consecutive ACC Championship Game, and played in a bowl game for a school-record 11th consecutive season.

In 2008, Day had two of the most productive wide receivers in the ACC. Brandon Robinson was eighth in the ACC in receiving yards (646) and 10th in yards per game (46.1) and Gunnell was 10th in the conference in receptions per game (3.5) and 11th in receiving yards (551).

Under Day's guidance, Robinson became one of the most prolific receivers in Boston College history. He ranks fourth all-time in receptions with 141 and seventh in yards with 2,023. his two years under Day's guidance, Robinson caught 98 passes for 1,439 yards and eight touchdowns.

In 2007, Day helped develop a receiving corps that caught 390 passes for 4,535 yards and 31 touchdowns as the Eagles amassed 5,924 yards of total offense on the year. The 2007 Eagles began the season 8-0 and were ranked No. 2 in both major polls en route to an 11-3 finish, the most wins for a BC team since 1940. The team played in its first ACC Championship Game and extended the nation's longest active bowl game winning streak to eight games. The Eagles finished 10th in the final AP poll, BC's best finish since the 1984 season.

Prior to joining the Boston College staff, Day spent the 2005 season as offensive graduate assistant at the University of Florida for Urban Meyer. The Gators posted a 9-3 record with Day assisting the offense. Gator wide receiver Chad Jackson was a semifinalist for the Biletnikoff Award, ranking sixth nationally in receptions per game (7.36), while Day was assisting with the offense.

Day arrived in Gainesville after spending the 2003 and 2004 seasons as the offensive graduate assistant at BC. With the Eagles, Day worked with the wide receivers and helped the team to a 9-3 overall record in 2004 and a No. 21 ranking in the final AP and ESPN/USA Today poll after defeating North Carolina, 37-24, in the Continental Tire Bowl. The ranking was the highest for the school since 1993 and senior wide receiver Grant Adams earned All-Big East accolades. In 2003, the Eagles posted an 8-5 overall record and defeated Colorado State, 35-21, in the San Francisco Bowl.

Day was the tight ends coach at his alma mater, the University of New Hampshire, in 2002. A three-year starter at quarterback and team captain as a senior in 2001, Day held four UNH passing records upon graduation, including best passing percentage in a career (59.9, 1997-2001) and touchdown passes in a career (53). His 653 completions rank seventh-best in Atlantic 10 conference history.

Day is a native of Manchester, N.H. He earned his undergraduate degree in business administration in 2002 before receiving a master's of science in administrative studies at BC in 2004. He was the New Hampshire Gatorade Player of the Year at Manchester Central High School in 1996.

Day and his wife, Christina, have one son, Ryan Jr.

ASSISTANT COACHES

SEAN DEVINE

Offensive Line
2nd Year at Boston College

Sean Devine enters his second season as the offensive line coach with the Eagles.

In 2009, Devine coached one of the biggest offensive lines in the nation, anchored by center Matt Tennant, who was a Rimington Trophy finalist and All-ACC second-team selection. Offensive tackle Anthony Castonzo was an All-ACC first-team selection and an SI.com All-America honorable mention selection. The Eagle offensive line blocked for running back Montel Harris, who had the fourth-most carries in the country (308) and the 10th-most rushing yards (1,457). The line helped Harris record eight 100-yard games and ranked second in the ACC in sacks against, allowing only 19 in 13 games.

Despite being picked to finish last in the ACC's Atlantic Division in preseason media voting, the 2009 Eagles finished with an 8-5 record, came within one win of playing in a third consecutive ACC Championship Game, and played in a bowl game for a school-record 11th consecutive season.

Prior to coming to BC, Devine spent the previous 13 seasons at New Hampshire and was the offensive coordinator for the last two. In his first seven seasons with the Wildcats, he served as the coach of the defensive line. Before being promoted to offensive coordinator, Devine was the offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator for four seasons.

In his two seasons as offensive coordinator, he led one of the best offenses in the FCS. Last year, UNH ranked eighth nationally in scoring offense (35.62) and passing efficiency (154.81), 19th in total offense (404.23) and 25th in passing offense (243.23).

In Devine's first year as offensive coordinator, his unit averaged 35.8 points and 407.2 yards per contest and was one of the most productive in the nation. Devine mentored one of the top players in the history of FCS football in All-American and Walter Payton Award winning QB Ricky Santos.

In 2006, his offensive line gave up the fewest sacks of any in the Atlantic 10, while also driving the offense to an impressive average of 414 yards per game. In 2005, UNH's line paved the way to 493 yards per contest and 74 touchdowns, both top marks in the Atlantic 10 and second-best in FCS.

Devine also served as the recruiting coordinator for New Hampshire and was responsible for recruiting Northern New Hampshire, Western New York and Western Pennsylvania. Devine had been the defensive line coach at UNH for his first seven seasons.

Devine also coached the defensive line at Colby College from 1994-95. At Colby, he ran the scout team and assisted with strength training and the implementation of the strength program.

A 1994 graduate of Colby College with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Physics, Devine was a four-year starter at outside linebacker. He was captain of the football team in 1993 and was named All-NESCAC and All-ECAC during his senior campaign.

Sean and his wife, Nicole, have a six-year-old daughter, Amelie.

MIKE SIRAVO

Recruiting Coordinator, Defensive Backs
4th Year at Boston College

Mike Siravo enters his fourth year as the recruiting coordinator and defensive backs coach for the BC football team.

In 2009, Siravo's secondary was a key part of a defense that ranked fourth in the ACC in total defense (327.6 ypg) and third in interceptions (15). In 2008, Siravo coached the secondary that was a key part of a defense that ranked in the top 10 nationally in seven different categories including interceptions (first, 26), turnovers gained (second, 36), total defense (fifth, 286.14), red zone defense (sixth, .72), rush defense (seventh, 91.2), pass efficiency defense (seventh, 98.81) and first downs defense (sixth, 14.71).

Despite being picked to finish last in the ACC's Atlantic Division in preseason media voting, the 2009 Eagles finished with an 8-5 record, came within one win of playing in a third consecutive ACC Championship Game, and played in a bowl game for a school-record 11th consecutive season.

In 2008, Siravo coached the secondary that was a key part of a defense that ranked in the top 10 nationally in seven different categories, including interceptions (first, 26), turnovers gained (second, 36), total defense (fifth, 286.14), red zone defense (sixth, .72), rush defense (seventh, 91.2), pass efficiency defense (seventh, 98.81) and first downs defense (sixth, 14.71). Also in 2008, Siravo helped BC bring in a 29-member recruiting class, the largest entering class in Eagles football history. BC's 26 interceptions that season tied for the most in the country with Florida. In his three seasons guiding the secondary, the Eagles have intercepted 66 passes.

In 2007, Boston College picked off 25 passes, which was one off the national lead. Paul Anderson accounted for six of those interceptions, which was the eighth-highest total in the country (seven were tied for the most with seven). That season, the Eagle defense finished fourth in the ACC in pass defense efficiency and finished third in the league in total defense. Senior free safety Jamie Silva was a consensus All-America first-team selection and was one of three finalists for the 2007 Jim Thorpe Award, which is given to the nation's top defensive back. Silva was MVP of the 2007 Champs Sports bowl, in which he had two interceptions. Siravo also oversaw the emergence of freshman defensive back DeLeon Gause, who earned ACC Player of the Week accolades. Cornerback DeJuan Tribble was named to the All-ACC second team.

Siravo was part of a BC staff that led the team to an 8-0 start and a No. 2 national ranking. The 2007 Eagles eventually finished 11-3, becoming the first BC team to win 11 games since 1940. The team played in the ACC Championship Game for the first time ever, won an eighth consecutive bowl game (longest active streak in college football), and finished the season ranked 10th in the nation, the team's best final poll finish since 1984.

Siravo came to Boston College from Temple University, where he served as recruiting coordinator and linebackers coach in 2006. At Temple, he was one of four coaches on that staff (Al Golden, Ryan Day, Bob Bicknell) with Boston College ties.

Prior to his experience at Temple, Siravo spent the three seasons as linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator at Columbia University. Siravo developed a strong national recruiting system under head coach Bob Shoop. He also helped linebacker Chuck Britton earn All-Ivy honors in 2004.

A former linebacker at Boston College, Siravo joined the Eagles as a walk-on in 1995 and later earned a scholarship. A two-year letterwinner, he played under head coaches Dan Henning and Tom O'Brien. Siravo also excelled off the field, earning Big East All-Academic team honors as a senior.

Siravo remained in Chestnut Hill upon graduation and began his coaching career as a graduate assistant for recruiting in 1998. The Eagles' February 1999 recruiting class was rated the best in school history, ranking 15th nationally according to expert Tom Lemming and featuring future NFL players William Green, Augie Hoffmann, Keith Leavitt and Derrick Knight. Siravo spent the 1999 and 2000 campaigns as Boston College's defensive graduate assistant, working with the secondary and linebackers. The Eagles made two postseason bowl appearances, the 1999 Insight.com Bowl and the 2000 Aloha Bowl.

Born March 9, 1976, Siravo is a native of Pawtucket, R.I. and earned his undergraduate degree in history from Boston College in 1998. He received a master's of science in administrative studies of business from BC in 2000. He is married to the former Alison Cahill, who graduated from BC in 1999 and BC Law School in 2002. Mike and Alison welcomed their first child, William Thomas, during the 2009 season.

ASSISTANT COACHES

BEN SIRMANS

Running Backs
4th Year at Boston College

Ben Sirmans returns to the Boston College sideline for his fourth season as running backs coach.

In 2009, Sirmans coached Montel Harris, who recorded eight 100-yard games, the fifth-most in a single season at BC. Harris eclipsed the 2,000-yard mark in his career and ranks 10th in that category. He set the BC sophomore rushing records in yards and attempts and finished the season with five straight 100-yard games. Harris finished second in the ACC in rushing, averaging 112.1 yards per game. Despite being picked to finish last in the ACC's Atlantic Division in preseason media voting, the 2009 Eagles finished with an 8-5 record, came within one win of playing in a third consecutive ACC Championship Game, and played in a bowl game for a school-record 11th consecutive season.

In 2008, Sirmans mentored the second-most prolific true freshman running back tandem in the country in Josh Haden and Harris. The duo combined for 106 yards per game, which was the second-best true freshman total in the country. Harris, who was not offered a scholarship until two weeks before signing day, exploded onto the scene and became the most productive true freshman tailback ever at BC. He had rookie records with five 100-yard rushing games and a total of 900 yards on the year. Harris finished fifth in the ACC in rushing and third in the ACC in all-purpose yards with 1,479.

In 2007, Sirmans helped running back Andre Callender set a BC single-season record for receptions (76), earning him All-ACC second-team honors. Callender led the ACC in yards from scrimmage (rushing, receiving) and set a single-season ACC record for most pass receptions by a running back.

The 2007 Eagles began the season 8-0 and ranked No. 2 in the country en route to finishing 11-3, the first BC team to win 11 games since 1940. The team played in its first ACC Championship Game and won an eighth consecutive bowl game. The Eagles finished 10th in the final AP poll, BC's best final ranking since 1984.

Sirmans brought 10 years of experience as a coach to the BC program when he joined the BC staff in 2007. He began his college coaching career in 1996 at his alma mater, the University of Maine. From 1996 through 1999, Sirmans worked as running backs coach and recruiting coordinator at Maine. In 1996 and 1997, Sirmans worked with Boston College Defensive Line Coach Jeff Comissiong, who was then an assistant at Maine.

In 2000, Sirmans moved on to Kent State. He coached the running backs for five years, first under current New England Patriots Defensive Coordinator Dean Pees (2000-03), and then under Doug Martin (2004). With Sirmans' assistance, the Kent State offense was notably productive. In 2001 and 2002, the Golden Eagles rolled up 215 yards per game along the ground, finishing 13th and 15th nationally in rushing production those two seasons. In 2004, Kent State scored 30.5 points per game, the second-highest mark in school history.

In 2005, Sirmans joined the staff at Michigan State as running backs coach. That season, the Spartans finished 20th in the nation, rushing for 201.8 yards per game. In 2006, Sirmans coached special teams as well as the running backs.

In his playing days, Sirmans was a running back at Maine under current Iowa Head Coach Kirk Ferentz. His senior year, Sirmans ran for 1,214 yards, earning All-Conference and All-New England honors. He graduated from Maine in 1993 with a degree in physical education, health, and recreation.

A native of East Orange, N.J., Sirmans is married to the former Tia Thompson.

BARRY GALLUP

Associate A.D., Football Operations
31st Year at Boston College

Barry Gallup's name has become practically synonymous with Boston College football. Gallup is now in his 31st year as a member of the Boston College football staff. He was promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Football Operations in 2008. He handles a number of administrative duties for head coach Frank Spaziani and his staff.

Gallup has dedicated a large part of his life to football in Boston. In early 2007, Gallup received the John Baronian Award for Lifetime Contribution to Football from the Gridiron Club of Greater Boston at its annual awards ceremony.

After starring on the football field at Swampscott High for legendary coach Stan Bondevitch, earning All-America honors as a senior, he entered BC in 1965 and would become the greatest receiver in the school's history before graduating in 1969. He set school marks for receptions with 87 and receiving yards, 1,325 (Mel Briggs eclipsed both of the records in 1973). He had 735 yards and established a season record for catches (46) as a senior (a mark eventually broken by Gallup protégé Brian Brennan in 1983). He also played two years of college basketball for legendary former Boston Celtic Bob Cousy.

Upon college graduation, Gallup turned down an offer to play with the Boston Patriots and began his career in teaching and coaching, working in the Swampscott school district. In 1970, he embarked upon a 20-year coaching career with the Eagles when he became a part-time assistant coach at BC. He became a full-time assistant in 1973, coaching the team's defensive line. His role changed to receivers and tight ends coach and head recruiting coordinator when Jack Bicknell arrived as head coach in 1981.

As an assistant first to Joe Yukica, then to Ed Chlebek and finally to Bicknell, Gallup established himself as a top recruiter and football strategist. Gallup played a key role in attracting some of the nation's most talented players to BC, including Heisman Trophy winner Doug Flutie, Joe Nash, Fred Smerlas and Peter Cronan. He coached several future professional players while directing the receiving corps, including Brian Brennan (Cleveland Browns), Mark Chmura (Green Bay Packers), Kelvin Martin (Dallas Cowboys), Pete Mitchell (New York Giants), Tom Waddle (Chicago Bears) and the brothers Flutie, Doug and Darren, who both went on to play in the Canadian Football League. As BC's primary recruiter, he was one of the key builders of bowl-bound BC teams in 1982 (Tangerine Bowl), '83 (Liberty), '85 (Cotton) and '86 (Hall of Fame). He was inducted into BC's Varsity Club Hall of Fame in 1983.

Gallup took over the Northeastern football program in 1991. After going 4-7 his first year, Gallup built the program into a winner that finished with a 6-5 mark in 1996 and an 8-3 record in 1997. He was named New England Coach of the Year in 1997. His 1998 senior class left as the most successful in school history. He left NU with an overall coaching record of 38-60-1. Before returning strictly to coaching in 1998, Gallup had an eventful four-year tenure as NU's athletics director in which the department successfully earned NCAA certification, initiated a comprehensive strategic plan to achieve gender equity, and added several prominent coaches, including highly respected hockey coach Bruce Crowder and men's basketball coach Dave Leitao.

Gallup resides in Wellesley with his wife, Victoria, and they are the parents of Lisa Ann, BC Nursing '09, Barry Charles Jr., currently a fifth-year senior football player at Notre Dame, and the late Darren Douglas.

SUPPORT STAFF

KELLY WHEELER

Assistant Director of Football Operations

Kelly Wheeler is in her fourth year as Assistant Director of Operations. Prior to her promotion in 2007, she had served as a staff assistant in the football office for two years.

Wheeler is a William and Mary graduate and earned her Master's degree from the University of Massachusetts in 2002. Prior to coming to BC, Wheeler served as Coordinator of Championships and Director of Championships for the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) from 2003-05. Previously, she served internships at BC (2002-03), the Pawtucket Red Sox (2001) and the Cape Cod Baseball League (2000).

Kelly and her husband, Matt, reside in Wayland with their son, Matthew.

BEN JOHNSON

Offensive Graduate Assistant

Ben Johnson is in his second year on the BC staff and his first as the offensive graduate assistant. He spent last season as the video graduate assistant.

Prior to coming to BC, Johnson spent a year working as a software developer for eTeleNext, Inc. in Durham, NC. He also worked as a math tutor for UNC student-athletes.

Johnson played four seasons as a quarterback for UNC. He walked on to the team in 2004 and served as the No. 3 quarterback in 2005 and 2006 under Head Coach John Bunting. He saw playing time in 2007 on special teams under Head Coach Butch Davis. He was also coached by current BC offensive coordinator Gary Tranquill and tight ends coach Dave Brock during his time at UNC.

Johnson graduated from North Carolina in 2008 with a B.S. in Mathematics and a B.S. in Computer Science. He is a native of Asheville, NC.

CATHY ALBANO

Staff Assistant

Cathy Albano has been a member of the Boston College football staff since October of 1991.

Albano received her Associate's Degree from Mass Bay Community College. She and her husband, Frank, reside in Newton and have three children, Marc, Bryan and Caitlyn.

BOB CALLAHAN

Assistant Recruiting Coordinator

Bob Callahan is in his second season as Assistant Recruiting Coordinator for the Eagles.

Prior to joining the BC staff, Bob served as the Assistant Athletic Director for Football Operations at the University of New Hampshire under Head Coach Sean McDonnell. During his stint at UNH, the football program made five consecutive trips the NCAA FCS Playoffs. Graduating from UNH in 2001 with a BS in Environmental Conservation, Bob went on to earn a MS, Sports Studies in 2006.

Originally from Randolph, MA Bob currently resides in Portsmouth, NH.

MATT FANNING

Video Graduate Assistant

Matt Fanning is in his second year on the BC staff and first as the video graduate assistant. Last year he served as the recruiting graduate assistant.

Fanning is a 2007 graduate of the College of the Holy Cross, where he was a four-year varsity athlete and three-sport captain (football basketball and baseball) at Marlboro High School. He was a member of the Dean's List and the Patriot League All-Academic team.

He served as the running backs coach at Holy Cross from 2008 until coming to BC, assisting with wide receivers, running backs, the offensive staff and scouting assignments.

DREW PETZING

Recruiting Graduate Assistant

Drew Petzing begins his first year on the Eagles' staff as the recruiting graduate assistant.

Petzing served as an assistant coach for Harvard during the 2009 season where he was responsible for all of the day-to-day video work including scouting breakdowns and reports. He was also an assistant coach for defensive backs at Middlebury College from 2007-09.

He graduated from Middlebury in 2009 and played two years of football, but both seasons were cut short by injury.

PAUL ZUKAUSKAS

Defensive Graduate Assistant

Former Eagle All-American offensive lineman Paul Zukauskas is in his second year as a member of the BC coaching staff, serving as the defensive graduate assistant.

Zukauskas was a four-year starter and achieved AFCA and Rivals.com All-America first-team honors and Walter Camp and Sporting News second-team honors in 2000. He was the only true freshman to start on the offensive line between 1997 and 2007.

Zukauskas played four years in the NFL with the Cleveland Browns. He started 18 regular-season games between 2001-04 at right and left guard and participated in more than 40 games on special teams and other positions.

Zukauskas is a "Double Eagle," graduating from Boston College High School in 1997 and BC in 2001.

GAME RECAPS

GAME 1

BOSTON COLLEGE - 54 NORTHEASTERN - 0

Sept. 5, 2009 • Chestnut Hill, MA

Montel Harris scored on a 48-yard run on Boston College's first play from scrimmage, and the Eagles ran away from Northeastern for a 54-0 victory.

Harris ran for 104 yards and three touchdowns - two rushing, one receiving - in the first half. Justin Tuggle and David Shinskie failed to settle the BC quarterback competition: Both had their way with the Football Championship Subdivision Huskies. Tuggle was 3 of 5 for 56 yards, and Shinskie was 7 for 10 for 110 yards.

Spaziani led the team onto the field from the tunnel. Then, he turned over the yellow towel he traditionally drapes over his shoulders to linebacker Mark Herzlich, the Atlantic Coast Conference defensive player of the year who is sitting out this year after being diagnosed with a rare form of cancer.

Rich Gunnell returned Northeastern's second punt for 56 yards to the Huskies' 29; five plays later Josh Haden ran it in from the 7 to make it 14-0. After another three-and-out, Shinskie took BC downfield before Harris scored from 4 yards out and it was 21-0 at the end of the first quarter.

The next two BC possessions were the best of the day for the Northeastern defense, which forced BC to punt and kick a field goal. But then Tuggle hit Colin Larmond Jr. for 42 yards to set up another TD, a 6-yard pass to Harris that made it 38-0.

GAME 2

BOSTON COLLEGE - 34 KENT STATE - 7

Sept. 12, 2009 • Chestnut Hill, MA

Boston College quarterbacks Justin Tuggle and Dave Shinskie each threw a first-quarter touchdown to lead the Eagles to a 34-7 win over Kent State.

Tuggle and Shinskie rotated at quarterback in their audition for the starting job. Tuggle finished 6 of 12 for 150 yards. Shinskie was 9-for-16 for 73 yards with one interception.

Tuggle threw a 6-yard touchdown to Rich Gunnell to give Boston College a 31-0 lead in the third quarter. Gunnell, who finished with six catches for 114 yards, also caught a 21-yard score from Shinskie in the opening quarter.

Kent State backup quarterback Spencer Keith connected with Jon Simpson for a 4-yard score with 2:15 left in the game. The Golden Flashes' score spoiled the Eagles' bid for consecutive season-opening shutouts for the first time since 1933.

Kent State running back Eugene Jarvis, who posted his 17th career 100-yard game in last week's win over Coastal Carolina, was held to 17 yards on 10 carries.

The Eagles didn't allow Kent State to cross midfield until early in the fourth quarter, holding the Golden Flashes to until 100 total yards until late in the game.

Kent State finished with 179 total yards; BC gained 336, with 223 coming through the air.

GAME 3

CLEMSON - 25 BOSTON COLLEGE - 7

Sept. 19, 2009 • Clemson, SC

C.J. Spiller had a 77-yard return score, kicker Richard Jackson added a school-record tying six field goals and Clemson's defense bottled up the Eagles in a game that took nearly five hours to finish because of two rain delays.

Spiller broke through the Eagles and cruised to a punt return TD, a first for the Clemson senior.

The Tigers' defense took over from there, holding the Eagles to just one first down--and that came by penalty--in the first 43 minutes.

Montel Harris, the ACC's third-leading rusher at more than 90 yards a game coming in, managed 4 yards on seven first-half carries.

Boston College juggled starting quarterbacks Justin Tuggle and David Shinskie without much effect. When the Eagles jogged off the field at halftime, they had minus 2 yards of offense.

Boston College got its only points once the game resumed, a 13-yard pass from Tuggle to Justin Jarvis. The Eagles were offsidcs on the following onsides kick try.

GAME 4

BOSTON COLLEGE - 27 WAKE FOREST - 24

Sept. 26, 2009 • Chestnut Hill, MA • OVERTIME

Wes Davis recovered a fumble in overtime to foil Wake Forest's drive for a winning touchdown as Boston College held on for a 27-24 win behind Dave Shinskie's three scoring passes.

The Demon Deacons had rallied behind Riley Skinner's two touchdown passes in the last 3:44 of regulation before the Eagles went ahead on a 23-yard field goal by Steve Aponavicius on the first series of overtime.

Wake Forest then got its chance to start at the 25-yard line and moved to a first down at the 4 on four running plays. It tried another run but no one was in position to take a hand-off and Skinner ran to the left without blockers.

Isaac Johnson forced the fumble and Davis recovered, ending the game and sending BC's players rushing onto the field.

GAME 5

BOSTON COLLEGE - 28 FLORIDA STATE - 21

Oct. 3, 2009 • Chestnut Hill, MA

Montel Harris broke free up the middle for a 42-yard touchdown run with 4:07 left - his second score of the game - and Boston College recovered after losing an 18-point lead to beat Florida State 28-21.

Harris finished with a career-high 179 yards on 25 carries for the Eagles. After Boston College stopped the Seminoles on fourth down with 2:16 left, Harris broke loose for a 39-yard run but then fumbled on the next play.

Boston College's Anthony Castonzo recovered, and Dave Shinskie was able to run out the clock.

Shinskie, a 25-year-old freshman in just his second week as the full-time starter, completed 12 of 21 passes for 203 yards and two touchdowns. Colin Larmond Jr. had five catches for 98 yards.

The Seminoles trailed 21-3 late in the second quarter before Chris Ponder led them to a pair of second-half touchdowns, tying the score 21-all when wide receiver Bert Reed hit Caz Piurowski for the 2-point conversion with 11 minutes left. Jeff Smith fumbled the ensuing kickoff and JaJuan Harley recovered at the Boston College 29, but Dustin Hopkins' 37-yard field goal attempt was wide right.

GAME 6

NO. 5 VIRGINIA TECH - 48 BOSTON COLLEGE - 14

Oct. 10, 2009 • Blacksburg, VA

Tyrod Taylor, Ryan Williams and No. 5 Virginia Tech's swarming defense made sure the Hokies' regular season losing streak against Boston College ended.

Taylor threw two early touchdown passes, Williams ran for 159 yards and a TD and the Hokies rolled 48-14 against the Eagles.

The victory ended a three-game regular season skid by Virginia Tech against Boston College.

The first pass quarterback David Shinskie threw that was caught was pulled in by Virginia Tech's Rashad Carmichael, and the cornerback returned in 22 yards for a TD that made it 31-0.

Boston College's initial first down came in the third quarter, and Shinskie's first completion came a few plays later, followed quickly by a false start penalty and a sack for a loss of 9 yards.

Williams got the Hokies off quickly, carrying on five straight plays for 46 yards on the opening drive, leading to Matt Waldron's 31-yard field goal.

Taylor took over next time, hitting Williams with a 23-yard pass over the middle on third-and-8. Three plays later, on third-and-19, Taylor scrambled behind the line, broke an ankle tackle, then found Danny Coale wide open in the end zone.

It was 24-0 after just over 18 minutes and the Hokies didn't let up.

BOSTON COLLEGE - 52 NC STATE - 20

Oct. 17, 2009 • Chestnut Hill, MA

Montel Harris set two school records with 264 yards rushing and five touchdowns to lead the Eagles to a 52-20 win over NC State.

Ten players previously had four touchdown runs for Boston College, the last was Darnell Campbell in 1993.

Harris set the yardage record with a 9-yarder early in the final quarter, surpassing the previous mark of 253, set by Phil Bennett in 1972.

BC, which led 24-13 at halftime, broke it open by taking the ball on the first possession of the second half and marching 72 yards in 11 plays, with Harris capping it with a 10-yard TD run.

Harris had 46-yard run to push him over 200 yards and set up his own score, a 1-yarder two plays later, making it 38-13. He added a 29-yard TD run late in the third quarter, improving it to 45-13.

BC quarterback Dave Shinskie threw a 59-yard scoring pass to Colin Larmond Jr. in the first quarter and finished 13 of 25 for 187 yards with two TD passes.

On its second series, Boston College went to the "Wildcat" formation and Harris busted through the line and down the right sideline for a 70-yard gain, moving the ball to the 2. He scored on the next play, making it 7-0.

NC State tied it 7-7 on Wilson's 1-yard TD plunge.

BC answered right back when Shinskie hit Larmond Jr. to make it 14-7.

GAME 8

NOTRE DAME - 20 BOSTON COLLEGE - 16

Oct. 24, 2009 • South Bend, IN

Golden Tate caught 11 passes for 128 yards and two touchdowns to lead Notre Dame to a 20-16 victory over Boston College.

Notre Dame came up with three interceptions in the second half, the final one with 98 seconds left.

The Eagles repeatedly burned the Notre Dame defense as Dave Shinskie threw for a season-high 279 yards and a touchdown, but the Irish came up with big plays, including two interceptions by Kyle McCarthy. BC had five turnovers, while the Irish had none.

Jimmy Clausen was 26 of 39 passing for 246 yards for Notre Dame.

BC had a chance to take control after scoring on its first possession of the first half to take a 16-13 lead, but the Irish defense came up big at key times. First the Irish forced a fumble by Montel Harris at their 1 on BC's second possession of the second half.

Then on BC's next possession, McCarthy intercepted a pass by Shinskie at the Notre Dame 23.

The BC defense contributed as well, tallying a safety in the first quarter and stopping the Irish on a fourth-and-goal from the 1 line early in the fourth quarter.

Boston College took the lead when Shinskie threw a 7-yard TD pass to Gunnell with 4:40 left in the second quarter. The Eagles had been outscored 53-0 at Clemson and at Virginia Tech in the first three quarters.

GAME 9

BOSTON COLLEGE - 31 CENTRAL MICHIGAN - 10

Oct. 31, 2009 • Chestnut Hill, MA

Former walk-on kicker Steve Aponavicius became Boston College's all-time scoring leader in the Eagles' 31-10 win over Central Michigan.

Montel Harris finished with 136 yards rushing on 27 carries and two 3-yard scoring runs for the Eagles. BC snapped the Chippewas' seven-game winning streak - their best since consecutive seasons with eight-game streaks from 1979-1980.

Aponavicius had an 18-yard field goal and four extra points, giving him 267 total points to surpass place-kicker Brian Lowe's (1986-89) mark of 262.

Dave Shinskie was

18-for-28 passing for 262 yards and a touchdown for the Eagles, who became bowl-eligible for 11th consecutive season.

Central Michigan quarterback Dan LeFevour, who entered fifth in the nation in completion percentage, was 20 of 34 for 152 yards and one interception.

Chippewas backup QB Ryan Radcliff had an 11-yard scoring run in the final minute.

BC linebacker Luke Kuechly had a 28-yard interception return for a score.

The Eagles took the ball on the initial possession of the second half with a stiff breeze at their backs and went 74 yards in seven plays, with Shinskie hitting Rich Gunnell down the middle for a 41-yard scoring strike to make it 14-3.

After holding Central Michigan to its first three-and-out of the game, the Eagles went in for another score.

Aponavicius, a former walk-on, kicked the extra point from the hold of Billy Flutie, nephew of 1984 Heisman Trophy winner Doug Flutie, for the record.

GAME 10

BOSTON COLLEGE - 14 VIRGINIA - 10

Nov. 14, 2009 • Charlottesville, VA

Dave Shinskie's 1-yard sneak on fourth down gave Boston College the lead and the Eagles handed Virginia its fourth straight loss, 14-10.

Virginia had taken its first lead of the game on Robert Randolph's 38-yard field goal on the last play of the third quarter, but couldn't muster one more big drive.

Shinskie, the 25-year-old freshman who spent six years in the minor leagues as a pitcher before returning to football, showed the poise of a seasoned player on the winning drive.

Facing a first-and-25 from his own 49 after back-to-back penalties, he hit Colin Larmond Jr. for 11 yards and Chris Pantale for 12, setting up a third-and-2. When Virginia stopped Montel Harris for a yard, the Eagles went for it on fourth down, and Harris gained 3 yards.

Shinskie later tried to connect with Rich Gunnell in the end zone, but Chris Cook was called for pass interference on the play, moving the ball to the Cavaliers 7. Three Harris runs later, it was fourth down again, and this time the 6-foot-4 quarterback kept it himself and pushed it in.

Nearly eight minutes remained, but after Virginia was forced to punt, the Eagles took over at their 14 and ran the clock down almost to the 2-minute mark before giving it back.

Jameel Sewell then drove Virginia to the Eagles 12 with 26 seconds left, but they faced fourth-and-1 with no timeouts left. Sewell tried to run it, but was stopped just short.

Earlier, Virginia looked like it might end its losing skid, and in exciting fashion as Chris Cook intercepted a Shinskie pass and returned it 58 yards for the tying touchdown.

The Cavaliers stopped the Eagles, then drove 60 yards to Randolph's field goal.

GAME 11

NO. 25 NORTH CAROLINA - 31 BOSTON COLLEGE - 13

Nov. 21, 2009 • Chestnut Hill, MA

Cam Thomas and Kendrick Burney each had defensive touchdowns as North Carolina scored three times in a span of 2 minutes, 19 seconds to open a 21-point lead and hold on to beat Boston College 31-13.

North Carolina forced six turnovers totaled to win its fourth consecutive game. Deunta Williams had three interceptions, returning one 39 yards to the BC 6 inch-line with 4:42 left in the game. Ryan Houston ran it in from there for his second touchdown of the game to make it 28-13.

Boston College had an outside shot at winning the ACC division title, but that disappeared with a flurry of first-quarter turnovers by quarter-back Dave Shinskie that helped spot the Tar Heels to a 21-0 lead.

Shinskie fumbled away one ball that Thomas returned 20 yards for a touchdown and then, two plays later, threw an interception that Burney ran in from 30 yards out.

T.J. Yates threw three interceptions of his own, including one in the end zone when Carolina was still sitting on a 21-13 lead. But Roderick Rollins, who had been called for a late hit that moved the Tar Heels in position to score, outjumped the receiver and kept BC in the game.

Three plays later, Deunta Williams grabbed his third interception of the game. Montel Harris ran 23 times for 132 yards for BC, becoming the 16th back in school history to reach the 2,000 yard plateau. Rich Gunnell caught six passes for 60 yards and the Eagles' only touchdown and left-footed walk-on Steve Aponavicius, playing his last home game in the stadium where he was discovered, made two field goals to remain perfect for the season.

BOSTON COLLEGE - 19 MARYLAND - 17

Nov. 28, 2009 • College Park, MD

Montel Harris ran for 142 yards, Dave Shinskie threw a 66-yard touchdown pass, and Boston College beat Maryland 19-17 to seal the Terrapins' first 10-loss season.

Steve Aponavicius kicked four field goals for Boston College. But the standout senior was wide right on a 31-yarder, ruining what had been a perfect season. Aponavicius made 37 straight conversions and was 12-for-12 on field goal tries before the third-quarter miss.

He did, however, secure the victory with a 42-yard field goal with 3:59 left -- the Eagles' only points of the second half.

Maryland used a 28-yard touchdown pass from Jamarr Robinson to Torrey Smith to close the lead to 19-17 with 1:34 to go, but Boston College recovered the onside kick.

Harris carried 41 times in his seventh 100-yard game of the year.

Aponavicius kicked three field goals in the first half, including two in the final 4 minutes, to help Boston College take a 16-10 lead.

Starting at quarterback for Maryland after being sidelined for two weeks with a knee injury, senior Chris Turner began his final college game by directing a 66-yard drive that produced a field goal.

But Turner was roughed up on the next two possessions, failed to get a first down and was replaced by Robinson. Turner did, however, play most of the second half and finished 11 for 17 for 101 yards.

The Eagles gained 119 yards in the first quarter in going up 10-3. After Shinskie and Colin Larmond hooked up on a third-and-17 for a 66-yard touchdown--BC's longest pass play of the season--Aponavicius kicked a field goal on BC's next drive.

Maryland pulled even behind Robinson, who went 4 for 4 for 50 yards in a march that ended with a 3-yard TD run by Da'Rel Scott.

GAME 13

USC - 24 BOSTON COLLEGE - 13

Dec. 26, 2009 • San Francisco, CA

Matt Barkley threw touchdown passes to Stanley Havili on Southern California's first two possessions and added a touchdown run in the fourth quarter to help the Trojans beat Boston College 24-13 in the Emerald Bowl.

Damian Williams caught 12 passes for 189 yards, setting up Havili's second score and Barkley's 1-yard sneak that gave USC a 24-13 lead with 11:53 remaining.

The Eagles stayed close with the Trojans for most of the game before Dave Shinskie threw an interception to Shareece Wright early in the fourth quarter. On the next play, Barkley connected on a 48-yard pass to Williams. Barkley scored on the next play.

USC struggled on the ground but was able to move the ball consistently through the air as Barkley often found receivers on slant patterns. Barkley was 27 of 37 for 350 yards in the second 300-yard game of his freshman season.

The Trojans got a fast start by scoring touchdowns on their two possessions with passes from Barkley to Havili to go up 14-0. But USC didn't score again in the half, with Barkley throwing an interception deep in BC territory to end one potential scoring drive.

The Eagles got right back into the game with a 7-yard run by Montel Harris. Steve Aponavicius hit the upright on the extra point attempt, ending a streak of 81 straight makes since late in the 2007 season.

BC got another score late in the half. Shinskie connected with Rich Gunnell on a 61-yard TD pass on the next play to make it 14-13.

Gunnell finished with six catches for 130 yards, breaking Pete Mitchell's school record for yards receiving with 2,659 in his career.

Harris finished with 102 yards on 23 carries for his fifth straight 100-yard game, but BC struggled to move the ball in the second half. The Eagles had just 19 yards in the third quarter and never mounted a sustained drive in the second half until the game had been decided.

RETIRED JERSEYS & NUMBERS

Never again will a Boston College football player wear the number 22 or 68. Those two retired numbers belonged to quarterback Doug Flutie and nose tackle Mike Ruth, respectively.

Doug Flutie

Flutie won the 1984 Heisman Trophy, given annually by the Downtown Athletic Club of New York to the outstanding college football player in the nation, and the Walter Camp Award, given by the Walter

Mike Ruth

Camp Football Foundation of New Haven, Conn., to the nation's most outstanding player.

Ruth was the winner of the 1985 Outland Trophy, given to the outstanding interior lineman in the nation by the Football Writers Association of America.

These two numbers were retired in a ceremony on October 8, 1998, as the Eagles played Virginia Tech.

Mike Ruth, Gene DeFilippo and Doug Flutie

Seven other former Boston College football players have received the honor of having their jerseys retired — Art Donovan, Bill Flynn, Gene Goodreault, Mike Holovak, Charles O'Rourke, Tony Thurman and Louis Urban.

Holovak, O'Rourke, Thurman and Urban were honored in ceremonies on September 12, 1998, as the Eagles beat Rutgers.

A four-year letterwinner at end and team captain in 1923, Urban played on Boston College teams that compiled an overall record of 25-7, including the 1920 team that went 8-0 and gave the school its first "Eastern Championship." He was a consensus first-team all-America selection in that season.

O'Rourke's Boston College teams compiled a cumulative record of 26-3-2. "Chuckin' Charlie" helped lead the Eagles to an 11-0 record in 1940, capped by the Sugar Bowl championship and the claim of a national championship. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame in 1972.

Holovak's Boston College teams finished 26-5 and he is known as one of the top running backs in school history. He scored all three Eagle touchdowns in the 1943 Orange Bowl and averaged 15.8 yards per carry in that contest against Alabama. A consensus first-team all-American in 1942, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1985.

Thurman was a consensus first team all-America pick in 1984 as a defensive back and still holds the school career records for interceptions in a game (3), season (12) and career (25).

Flynn, who was honored in ceremonies at 1999's Miami game, was associated with Boston College athletics for nearly seven decades as a student-athlete, faculty member, coach and director of athletics. He played football at Boston College from 1936-38, serving as team captain in '38. He also played hockey and became the first Boston College player to score 20 goals in a season. Flynn returned to the University in 1945 as a mathematics teacher and assistant football coach and seven years later became the Alumni Association executive secretary. Flynn was the director of athletics for the Eagles from 1957 to 1990 and during his tenure, Boston College expanded its varsity sports programs and constructed most of its major athletic facilities.

Donovan, who was honored at 1999's Pittsburgh game, was a four-year letterman for the Eagles from 1946-49 and was an outstanding lineman for his teams that went a combined 20-13-3. In the professional ranks, he played on two world championship teams in 12 seasons as a perennial all-pro selection at defensive tackle for the Baltimore Colts. He was inducted into the Professional Football Hall of Fame in 1968.

Goodreault, who was honored at 2001's Pittsburgh game at Alumni Stadium, was a member of the Boston College football team that won the 1941 Sugar Bowl. He lettered for the Eagles from 1938 to 1940 as an end and was a consensus first-team all-America pick in 1940, including a spot on the Walter Camp All-America team.

DOUG FLUTIE

Doug Flutie is the quintessential football performer. Between the 1981 and 1984 college football seasons, he produced a major college career record of 11,054 yards of total offense (10,579 of them from passing, another national career record).

He first appeared on the collegiate scene in the fall of 1981 starting in the fourth game of his freshman year in an already-lost game at Penn State. He raked Joe Paterno's defense for 135 passing yards and a touchdown and won the starting job with that performance.

He went on to post a 30-11-1 overall record as a starter while also leading BC to three postseason bowls, the school's first postseason play in 40 years. He was the game MVP of the Tangerine Bowl in his sophomore year against Auburn and the Liberty Bowl in his junior year vs. Notre Dame.

Flutie's last-chance, game-winning drives were the stuff of Hollywood screenwriters. As long as there was time on the clock, Flutie always believed that it was possible to win.

And in those rare instances when it didn't happen, it was only because he had run out of time — not out of opportunity.

The best thing about watching Flutie in a game was wondering what astounding feat he would perform that day. Those feats weren't always game-winning plays, but often a series of individual plays within a game that, when totaled, made victory possible.

No obstacle on the field ever seemed too great to overcome.

While gifted with great mobility and an uncanny talent to "photograph" an opposing defense and then pick it apart at his whim, perhaps his greatest talent was an innate sense of how to win — an asset that never was coached into him.

When he wasn't rolling up prodigious amounts of passing yards, Flutie tantalized his foes with his scrambling and finished his career with more than 700 rushing yards.

Then, there was the size factor — "Little Doug" playing in a land of giants. Of course, "Little Doug" was just as tall as the average American male, about 5-10. Perception soon became reality and a "little" man, real or imagined, wasn't supposed to accomplish what he did on a football field.

As a sophomore, he engineered a memorable tie against defending national champion Clemson. After the nationally televised game, CBS commentator Pat Haden, himself a smallish quarterback who succeeded at USC, sought him out and told him, "Don't ever let anyone tell you that you are too small to play this game." Yet, he also was a man of the people. He went to class with other students; he ate on the same meal plan they used; he played pick-up basketball games in the gym with them; and he never sought an exalted place in either his campus or personal life. He thrived in his family setting away from the adulation, glitz and glitter of his fame. One of the happiest moments of a momentous senior year was playing with his younger brother Darren, then a freshman wide receiver.

Oddly enough, Flutie eschewed scholarship offers from Holy Cross and Syracuse, who wanted to make him a defensive back despite his fine performances at quarterback for Natick High School, in Boston's Metro-west suburbs.

But Boston College got him with an assurance by new head coach Jack Bicknell that he would be given a full shot.

In 1983, he was key in the Eagles' upset victory over Alabama and another last-second win against Temple. His team lost to Notre Dame in the Liberty Bowl, but he was named game MVP.

All of that simply set the table for his amazing senior season in 1984. He threw six touchdown passes in a 52-20 romp over North Carolina; got four in an opening-game victory over Western Carolina; and three each against Rutgers, Army and Holy Cross; and of course, his fabled, last-play touchdown pass to Gerard Phelan to beat Miami stood above all else.

In 1984, Doug Flutie became the first player in Boston College history to win college football's grandest individual award — the Heisman Trophy. It capped an unbelievable 9-2 season that included the astounding victory over Miami, a victory over Houston in the Cotton Bowl and a No. 5 national ranking.

He was the single-most exciting and resourceful player in college football that season. In addition to being named the starting quarterback on every major 1984 all-America team and winning the Heisman, he also won the Maxwell Award, given to the nation's outstanding college football player; the Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award; and numerous player of the year awards.

He also scored in the classroom, where he won a National Football Foundation post-graduate scholarship and was nominated as a candidate for a Rhodes Scholarship.

Following his graduation from BC, Flutie was selected in the 11th round of the National Football League Draft by the Los Angeles Rams. He opted for a career in the United States Football League and played for the New Jersey Generals in 1985.

He played in the NFL for the Chicago Bears from 1986-87 and the New England Patriots from 1987-89.

Flutie then headed to the Canadian Football League for eight seasons and played for British Columbia (1990-91), Calgary (1992-95) and Toronto (1996-97). Flutie was named the CFL's most outstanding player an unprecedented six times, led the league in passing five times and helped his team capture the Grey Cup three times (Toronto in 1996-97 and Calgary in 1992).

He returned to the NFL on Jan. 20, 1998, when he signed a free agent contract with the Buffalo Bills. During the 1998 season, he led the Bills to a playoff spot and was named to the Pro Bowl. He was named the NFL comeback player of the year by the Associated Press and Pro Football Weekly.

The 2005 NFL season saw Flutie return home to play for the New England Patriots. Flutie retired from the NFL in 2006 and serves as a football commentator for ABC/ESPN.

Flutie and his family founded the Doug Flutie, Jr., Foundation for Autism. The group focuses on raising awareness and support for those affected by the disorder with which their son has been diagnosed. The foundation can be reached at 617-451-9393.

As icing on the cake, Flutie headlined the 2007 College Football Hall of Fame class. Flutie was selected in his first year of eligibility and was inducted at the 50th Annual Awards Dinner at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York City. He was officially enshrined at the Hall in South Bend, Ind., during ceremonies in the summer of 2008.

MIKE RUTH

Mike Ruth is the only Boston College player to win the Outland Trophy, presented to the nation's best interior offensive or defensive lineman. Though his team had a losing record, Ruth was honored in 1985, the only time a player from a non-winning team has been recognized.

At 6-1 and 265 pounds, he not only was the team's strongest player — he had a record 560-pound bench press as a junior — but he also was the quickest lineman.

He mauled the offensive linemen who tried to block him, often tossing them aside like rag dolls; or he fooled them with his cat-like quickness that helped him elude double teams by centers and guards until it was almost monotonous to watch.

The combination of his strength and quickness helped him accumulate a couple dozen sacks and nearly 300 tackles during his career.

Injuries once more dogged him as a senior but not enough that he didn't excel on a team that won only four of 12 games.

Ruth had built a tremendous reputation during his junior season and really secured the Outland Trophy in the 1985 season's first game, the Kickoff Classic against Brigham Young University at Giants Stadium in New Jersey.

He relentlessly harassed BYU's quarterbacks the entire game, convincing the trophy's voters that he still was the country's best interior lineman. His play for the rest of the season did nothing to diminish that impression.

Ruth showed as a freshman during the 1982 season that he would be special when, playing a backup role, he accumulated 36 tackles and three quarterback sacks.

Though dogged by a season-long ankle injury as a sophomore in 1983, he more than doubled his tackles to 80 and had 7.5 sacks.

In 1984, as the key to the Eagles defensive strength, Ruth had 102 tackles, 76 of them solo. He had 6.5 sacks, but also was credited with 20 quarterback pressures and seven other minus-yard plays. In the 1984 game against Holy Cross, he pressured the Crusader quarterback into throwing five interceptions.

Away from the field, he was just as unique.

For most of his time at BC, he seriously considered a vocation to the priesthood. He was a very value-oriented person who practiced what he preached. Often, the night before a game, the team would watch a movie he found objectionable and he simply sat outside the meeting room where it was being shown, and studied.

When his teammates emerged, he rejoined them for the team's late-night snack and everything was very comfortable for all concerned.

His mother was a victim of severe arthritis, so bad that at times she could not walk down the aisle in his family's parish church outside Philadelphia. No matter. Mike simply picked her up in his massive arms and carried her to her pew; and when it came time for her to receive Holy Communion, he carried her to the altar and back again.

He was team captain in 1985, his Outland Trophy year, but his leadership, even in a losing season, remained true to his personality. He told everyone before that season that he was not a holler guy, that his leadership would be by example. He never wavered and played as intensely as he had the previous seasons.

Ruth came to BC from Norristown, Pa., where he graduated from Methacton High School. He was a third-team all-state pick and was the team captain.

After his Boston College career, Ruth was a second-round draft pick (42nd pick overall) of the New England Patriots and played for the team in 1986-87.

Boston College 3

Frank Leahy came to Boston College in 1939, succeeding the immortal Gil Dobie, and immediately declared, "I did not come to BC to fail." Nor did the 29-year old protégé of Knute Rockne, who had tutored Fordham's mighty Seven Blocks of Granite.

His team was ranked 11th nationally when it faced Clemson in the Cotton Bowl — the first New England team to participate in a bowl game in 20 years. The Eagles took a 3-0 lead on Alex Lukachik's 36-yard field goal, but Clemson roared right back on its next possession, and Charley Timmons ran for a score.

That was it for the day. Banks McFadden knocked down three Charley O'Rourke passes in the end zone in the fourth quarter, and BC drove to the Clemson 8-yard line late in the game but failed to score.

SUGAR BOWL

January 1, 1941 • New Orleans, LA

Boston College 19

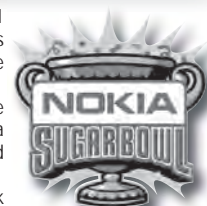

Tennessee 13

In Leahy's second year, the Eagles went unbeaten in 11 games and finished with their highest national ranking ever, thanks to a gritty come-from-behind 19-13 win over Tennessee in the Sugar Bowl.

The Volunteers, who had not lost a regular season game in three years, led 7-0 at the half, but Joe Zablski's recovery of a blocked punt set up Harry Connolly's game-tying touchdown and extra point in the third quarter.

Tennessee came back to take a 13-7 lead, but Mike Holovak ended a 60-yard drive when he scored BC's second touchdown. However, Leahy elected to run Holovak for the extra point which was stopped. The score remained tied, 13-13.

Don Currvan blocked a Tennessee field goal in the fourth quarter and started BC on its winning drive. Two passes to Ed Zablski from Charlie O'Rourke got the ball to the Vols' 30-yard line, and two plays later, O'Rourke, behind Hank Toczylowski's block, ran 24 yards for the winning touchdown.

ORANGE BOWL

January 1, 1943 • Miami, FL

Alabama 37

Boston College 21

This contest was a wild affair, as Boston College took a 14-0 lead on two of Mike Holovak's three touchdowns on the day. Holovak's first touchdown came on a 65-yard run and his second on a 35-yard sweep.

After Alabama fought back and took a 19-14 lead, Holovak scored his third touchdown of the day on a two-yard plunge. Harry Connolly's extra-point gave the Eagles a 21-19 lead. By this time, injuries had begun to pile up for BC (Mario Gianelli, one of the team's best linemen, broke his toe getting dressed for the game and never played), and Alabama took the lead for good on a field goal. The Tide soon took a 28-21 advantage and the Eagles missed their tying chance when they were unable to score from the 8-yard line in the fourth quarter.

Auburn 33

Boston College 26

Eagle quarterback Doug Flutie put on a dazzling performance, completing 22-of-38 passes for 299 yards and two touchdowns (he also scored on a 5-yard run and accounted for a pair of two-point-conversions), but the Eagles' furious second-half rally fell just short of victory.

The Eagles scored on the first drive of the game and then played tremendous defense, stopping the nationally ranked Auburn Tigers twice on drives inside their own 5-yard line without surrendering a touchdown.

The Tigers used their blinding outside speed to score three second-quarter touchdowns and increased their lead to 33-10 by the end of the third.

Boston College's coaches and players never gave up and battled back in the fourth quarter of the nationally televised game that saw Flutie throw scoring strikes to tight end Scott Nizolek and wide receiver Brian Brennan in a last-ditch effort to win. Brennan caught seven passes for 149 yards and one touchdown in the game, but it was Flutie who was named Outstanding Offensive Player by the national broadcast crews.

LIBERTY BOWL

December 29, 1983 • Memphis, TN

Notre Dame 19

Boston College 18

Despite bitter 11-degree temperatures, Doug Flutie shined once again in postseason action, completing 16 of 37 passes for 287 yards and three touchdowns. The Fighting Irish, however, also tallied three TDs and emerged a one-point victor.

On BC's first possession, Flutie marched the Eagles 63 yards in seven plays, culminated by a 17-yard scoring toss to Brian Brennan. Notre Dame's Allen Pinkett plunged over from the 1-yard line, and following Mike Johnston's extra-point kick (the only PAT conversion of the night), the Irish were ahead at the end of the first quarter, 7-6. Notre Dame scored twice in the second quarter before Gerard Phelan snagged a 28-yard pass from Flutie for a touchdown, which closed the gap to 19-12 at halftime.

Scott Gieselmann grabbed a 3-yard touchdown flip from Flutie midway through the third quarter, but the contest was a deadlocked defensive struggle for the remainder of the evening. With 1:08 left on a fourth-down situation on Notre Dame's 35, Flutie's toss intended for Joe Giaquinto up the middle fell incomplete.

Tailback Troy Stradford was the Eagles leading ground gainer with 51 yards on 16 carries. Flutie, however, was named the game's Most Valuable Player for his aerial efforts.

COTTON BOWL

January 1, 1985 • Dallas, TX
Boston College 45
Houston 28

Four months to the day after the memorable 1984 season began, it ended with the Eagles' first postseason Bowl victory in 44 years.

Before 56,522 (67,381 paid) at the frigid Cotton Bowl (32 windy, drizzly degrees) and another CBS-TV national audience, Heisman Trophy winner Doug Flutie (13 for 37, 180 yards) threw two scoring passes in the first quarter to boost BC to a 17-7 lead. Kelvin Martin's 63-yard touchdown grab to open the scoring was the longest aerial connection of the year for the Eagles. Flutie would add his Cotton Bowl-record third touchdown pass later in the contest.

Houston trimmed two touchdowns off BC's 31-14 halftime lead before the Eagle ground game asserted itself. Steve Strachan (23 carries, 91 yards, 2 TDs, earning him Offensive MVP honors) and Troy Stradford (CBS-Chevrolet MVP with 20 rushes, 196 yards and 2 TDs) wore down the Cougar defense with their punishing carries and both scored fourth-quarter touchdowns to ice the game.

HALL OF FAME BOWL

December 23, 1986 • Tampa, FL

Eagle quarterback Shawn Halloran connected with wide receiver Kelvin Martin on a 5-yard touchdown pass with just 32 seconds remaining in the game to give Boston College a thrilling 27-24 victory over the Georgia Bulldogs in the first Hall of Fame Bowl game in Tampa, FL.

The perfectly timed touchdown toss capped a sparkling 76-yard drive that began with just 2:38 left on the clock and Georgia holding a 24-20 edge.

The Eagles started the game in high gear, with Halloran picking apart the Bulldogs' defense for 22 completions in his first 31 attempts — good for 242 yards, a touchdown and a 20-7 lead at intermission.

Georgia roared back in the second half, however, outscoring the Eagles 17-0 until BC's magical final drive.

Tailback Troy Stradford shared the spotlight with Halloran and Martin in the game, rushing for 122 yards and a touchdown on 20 carries and pulling in seven passes for 48 more yards — including a 12-yard reception that set up the Halloran-to-Martin game-winner.

BOWL GAMES

HALL OF FAME BOWL

January 1, 1993 • Tampa, FL

Tennessee 38

Boston College 23

The Eagles' first bowl appearance in six years fell short of being a success as a 17-point scoring blitz by Tennessee in the third quarter broke open a close game and gave the speedy Volunteers a lead that could not be matched. BC had some outstanding performances from tight end Pete Mitchell, who set a Hall of Fame Bowl receiving record with nine catches for 100 yards (and a pair of scores), and from quarterback Glenn Foley, who clicked on 23-of-46 passes for 268 yards and threw a pair of two-point conversions in addition to the two TD passes to Mitchell.

Vols' quarterback Heath Shuler hurt the Eagles with two rushing and two passing scores, including a 69-yarder to Mose Phillips that gave Tennessee a 31-7 lead late in the third period. BC rallied in the final quarter with Foley's 17-yard TD pass to Mitchell and Darnell Campbell's 7-yard scoring dash, each of which was followed by a successful two-point conversion play, but the clock ran out on BC's strong closing effort with the Eagles still two scores shy of victory.

CARQUEST BOWL

January 1, 1994 • Miami, FL

Boston College 31

Virginia 13

Glenn Foley put on another masterful passing show in leading the Eagles to the Carquest Bowl championship before a CBS national television audience. The Virginia Cavaliers gave BC an early scare, picking off Foley's second pass of the game and converting it into a touchdown and a 7-0 advantage just 1:05 into the game.

But Foley would make few mistakes in the ensuing 58 minutes and 55 seconds of play. In this, his final collegiate appearance, Foley would go on to set eight Blockbuster/Carquest Bowl records, passing for 391 yards and three touchdowns and earning himself the game's Most Valuable Player award.

Foley showcased the Eagles' lightning-like attack, firing scoring passes of 78 (to Clarence Cannon) and 46 yards (to Keith Miller), along with a five-yarder for Cannon's second score. Fullback Darnell Campbell wrapped up the day's scoring with a 12-yard touchdown burst on the first play of the fourth quarter.

As usual, tight end Pete Mitchell was Foley's favorite target, catching seven passes for 82 yards of real estate.

Overall, the Eagle offense was splendid. When the game ended, BC had gained a whopping 557 yards — nearly seven yards per play.

Defensively, Stephen Boyd once again led BC in tackles with 14. His fellow linebacker Brian Howlett chipped in with nine stops, while free safety Terence Wiggins added eight and tackle Chris Sullivan had seven. The Eagles held the Cavs to just 85 yards on the ground.

BOWL GAMES

JEEP ALOHA BOWL

December 25, 1994 • Honolulu, HI

Boston College 12

Kansas State 7

In a spectacular defensive effort, the Eagles stopped eighth-ranked Kansas State cold — completely erasing the Wildcats' ground attack (minus 61 yards on the day) and sacking quarterback Chad May eight times. The Kansas State offense could not manage a touchdown in the game; the Wildcats' only points came on a blocked punt, which was recovered in the end zone.

Eagle defensive end Mike Mamula, playing in what would be his final collegiate game, was named the Aloha Bowl Most Valuable Player after notching four quarterback sacks, including one for a safety that proved to be the winning points of the contest for Boston College.

Offensively, the Eagles mounted a textbook drive on their first possession of the game — covering 78 yards on five rushing attempts by David Green and Justice Smith. Green rolled off 51 of those yards on BC's first play from scrimmage, and Smith capped the quick strike with a touchdown run from two yards out. For Green, who would accumulate 121 yards on a workhorse 28 carries in this game, it was his seventh 100-plus yard performance of his fine senior season.

Kansas State scored on the blocked punt on the last play of the first quarter, and both defenses duelled in front of an ABC-TV national audience before the Eagles were able to muster another long drive in the fourth period that culminated in David Gordon's 35-yard field goal with 1:18 left. The key play of that successful late drive was a 46-yard pass from Mark Hartsell to wide receiver Kenyatta Watson.

INSIGHT.COM BOWL

December 31, 1999 • Tucson, AZ

Colorado 62

Boston College 28

The Eagles traveled to Tucson, Ariz., to face off with the Colorado Buffaloes in the Insight.com Bowl.

Colorado began the game with a 65-yard drive that resulted in the first touchdown. The Eagles returned the favor with a drive of their own, but John Matich missed a field goal and Colorado took over again. The Buffaloes charged down the field, scoring another touchdown. The Buffaloes would score again before the first quarter ended.

To open the second quarter, BC mounted a drive, but a Brian St. Pierre pass was picked off at the BC 21 and returned for a touchdown by Rashidi Barnes. BC was unable to convert a first down on its next possession and CU's Ben Kelly returned the punt 88 yards for another Colorado touchdown.

The Eagles showed they would not give up when George White intercepted a pass from CU quarterback Mike Moschetti and returned it 78 yards for the Eagles' first touchdown of the game. With 7:22 left in the first half, the Eagles trailed by a score of 35-7. The half came to a close, however, with Colorado ahead 45-7.

The third quarter offered much the same, with Tim Hasselbeck and St. Pierre combining to complete only nine of 28 passes.

By the end of the day, Colorado took a convincing 62-28 win back to Boulder.

BOWL GAMES

JEEP ALOHA BOWL

December 25, 2000 • Honolulu, HI

Boston College 31
Arizona State 17

Boston College put on a second-half offensive explosion to defeat Arizona State by a 31-17 score in the 2000 Jeep Aloha Bowl.

Though Arizona State jumped on the board first, BC was quick to respond with 10 straight points for a 10-7 lead after one quarter. Senior running back Cedric Washington marched into the end zone just 1:07 after the ASU score on a 10-yard run.

After a fumble recovery off a sack of Sun Devil quarterback Jeff Krohn, senior Mike Sutphin connected on a 50-yard field goal to put BC ahead.

Tied at the half at 10 after ASU kicked a 28-yard field goal in the second quarter, BC came out and tallied three successive touchdowns to take a 31-10 lead. Tim Hasselbeck found wideout Dedrick Dewalt for a 58-yard pass completion and a 17-10 lead. Junior Ryan Read hooked up with Hasselbeck on the Eagles' next drive for a 40-yard score and the 14-point advantage.

Leading 24-10 to start the fourth quarter, senior linebacker Ryan Burch intercepted a pass attempt by Griffin Goodman. Washington took over, and after four rushes that gained 28 yards, he ran the final 10 yards into the end zone for the Eagles' final score of the day and a 31-10 lead. ASU added a late score.

Boston College accumulated 180 yards on the ground, including a final 100-yard rushing game (109 yards) for Washington.

MUSIC CITY BOWL

December 28, 2001 • Nashville, TN

Boston College 20
Georgia 16

Boston College snapped its 22-game losing streak to ranked teams with a thrilling 20-16 victory over No. 16 Georgia in the 2001 Music City Bowl. Consensus All-America tailback William Green rushed for 149 yards, including a seven-yard, game-winning touchdown with 4:43 remaining in the game, to lead the Eagles to consecutive wins in a postseason bowl game.

Although the Eagles were outgained, 410 yards to 306 yards, the team did benefit from two UGA interceptions, two UGA fumbles and two first downs resulting from UGA penalties.

Brian St. Pierre finished with 109 yards and one touchdown on nine completions. Green led all rushers with 149 yards and one touchdown, rushing for his 10th 100-yard game of the season. Fred Gibson was the game's leading receiver with 109 yards on six receptions. Derrick Dewalt made three catches for 62 yards.

Defensively, safety Ralph Parent made 11 stops to lead the Eagles. Defensive end Derric Rossy and Josh Ott each recorded seven tackles. Rossy added a sack for nine yards, while Ott had an interception and fumble recovery. The BC defense had four sacks in the game, including those from Rossy, linebackers Vinny Ciurciu and Scott Bradley and tackle Doug Goodwin. Bradley also had an interception return for 21 yards and one forced fumble.

SAN FRANCISCO BOWL

December 31, 2003 • San Francisco, CA

Boston College 35
Colorado State 21

Boston College won a bowl game for an unprecedented third year in a row as the Eagles thumped Toledo, 51-25, in the Motor City Bowl in Detroit. Senior quarterback Brian St. Pierre saved his best for last, completing 25-of-35 passes for a career-high 342 yards and three touchdowns as the Eagles capped one of the most successful seasons in their football history.

The game was never close as the Eagles scored touchdowns on their first six possessions. BC took the opening kickoff on its own 24 and marched 76 yards in 10 plays behind the rushing of Derrick Knight, who finished the day with 19 carries for 65 yards and one touchdown.

On the next possession, St. Pierre completed his first touchdown pass of the day to sophomore wide receiver Grant Adams, who finished as BC's leading receiver on the day (five catches, 92 yards, two touchdowns).

After Toledo pulled to within 14-3, the Eagles mounted another impressive drive, culminating in a St. Pierre touchdown pass to another talented sophomore wide receiver, a 40-yarder to Joel Hazard that made the score 21-3.

The Rockets could get no closer the rest of the day.

With the win, the Eagles notched their ninth victory for the first time since 1993. Knight finished the year with 1,432 rushing yards, the third-best total in school history. St. Pierre finished with 48 career scoring tosses, third on the BC list behind Glenn Foley (72) and Doug Flutie (67).

Boston College celebrated New Year's Eve in the City by the Bay by winning its fourth consecutive bowl game, a 35-21 victory over Colorado State in the Diamond Walnut San Francisco Bowl.

The Eagles scored early and often, taking a commanding 21-0 first-quarter lead. Will Blackmon started the game on a high note, returning the opening kickoff to the Colorado State 41. All-time rushing leader Derrick Knight dominated the opening drive and scored from the five to give the Eagles a 7-0 lead with 12:14 left.

The BC defense forced a three-and-out on the Rams' first possession and on the next drive, the Eagle offense drove to midfield where junior quarterback Paul Peterson unleashed a 50-yard TD pass to Larry Lester to go up 14-0.

Colorado State drove to the BC 33 on the next drive, but junior free safety T.J. Stancil snagged the first of his career-high three picks on the day and returned it 54 yards. Four plays later, Knight ran the ball in to give the Eagles the 21-0 lead.

The Rams got on the board in the second with a 12-play, 68-yard scoring drive, making the score 21-7 with 10:24 remaining in the period. CSU's only other scoring threat of the half was thwarted once again by Stancil, who picked off Bradlee Van Pelt's pass in the end zone.

A 40-yard Van Pelt scoring pass with seven minutes remaining in the third trimmed BC's lead to 21-14, but a Stancil interception led to a Peterson-to-Lester 19-yard TD pass to give the Eagles some breathing room and a 28-14 lead.

After an unsuccessful fourth down play for Colorado State, Knight iced the win, marching 28 yards to the end zone. With the win, BC finished the season 8-5, marking the first time in program history the team had won seven or more games in five straight seasons. The team also won its 40th game in five seasons, tying a BC record for wins in a five-year span.

BOWL GAMES

CONTINENTAL TIRE BOWL

December 30, 2004 • Charlotte, NC

Boston College 37
North Carolina 24

In his first game back from a broken finger, senior quarterback Paul Peterson threw for 236 yards as the Eagles won a fifth straight bowl game, beating North Carolina 37-24 in the Continental Tire Bowl.

Redshirt freshman Andre Callender carried the ball 26 times for 174 yards and a touchdown in a balanced offensive effort.

Peterson guided the Eagles to a 7-0 lead on their first drive, an 11-play, 86-yard march that ended with an one-yard touchdown plunge by L.V. Whitworth.

UNC would quickly even the score at 7, but on BC's next possession, Callender dominated an 11-play, 78-yard scoring drive. Peterson completed a two-yard touchdown pass to Grant Adams to give the Eagles a 14-7 lead after one quarter.

Midway through the second quarter, UNC got a break when it recovered a Peterson fumble and, six plays later, UNC's Darian Durant completed a five-yard TD pass to Wallace Wright to knot the game at 14. The Eagles then drove to the UNC 5-yard-line, but Ryan Ohliger's 22-yard field goal attempt was blocked.

The Tar Heels mounted a scoring drive that gave them their first lead, capped by a 51-yard Durant touchdown pass to Derrele Mitchell. But the Eagles scored with 1:44 left in the half to tie the score at 21 at intermission.

UNC opened the third with a Connor Barth field goal to take a 24-21 lead. As the third quarter came to an end, however, Callender gained 38 yards to the UNC 10, setting up a 1-yard touchdown plunge three plays later that gave BC a 27-24 lead.

The Eagle defense forced a punt on UNC's next drive and BC took over with good field position. On fourth down at the UNC 21, Ohliger faked the field goal and ran for the score, avoiding would-be Tar Heel tacklers on the way and stunning the crowd as the Eagles took a 34-24 lead.

BC's final points came when William Troost hit an 18-yard field goal with 4:09 left.

MPC COMPUTERS BOWL

December 28, 2005 • Boise, ID

Boston College 27
Boise State 21

Ryan Glasper intercepted a Jared Zabransky pass in the end zone with 37 seconds left to lift Boston College past Boise State 27-21 in the 2005 MPC Computers Bowl.

Playing before a hostile crowd and on the blue turf of homestanding Boise State, the Eagles stunned the Broncos by scoring the first 27 points of the game as quarterback Matt Ryan connected on three touchdown passes, including two to Tony Gonzalez in the first half. Ryan completed 19-of-36 passes for 256 yards, 144 of them going to senior Will Blackmon.

Ryan got the Eagles on the board 3:29 into the first half when he found Gonzalez for a 24-yard touchdown pass.

Following a Ryan Ohliger 30-yard field goal, BC linebacker Jonon Dunbar caused a fumble that was picked up by Ray Henderson and taken to the Broncos 13 yard-line. Ryan then hooked up with Gonzalez on a 13-yard strike to give the Eagles a 17-0 lead.

After another Ohliger field goal in the third quarter, Boise State finally responded with two scores over a span of 2:09.

First, Zabransky hit Drisan James for a 53-yard touchdown with 1:24 left in the third, then the junior quarterback ran for a two-yard score to make it 27-14.

A 92-yard punt return for a score by Boise State's Quinton Jones cut the deficit to six points with 3:51 left in the fourth quarter and set up an exciting finish.

The Broncos began their final drive on the BC 47 with less than two minutes left. Zabransky completed a fourth-down pass to Vinny Perretta for 35 yards and a first down at the BC 14. After a pass interference call put the ball on the five-yard-line, Glasper intercepted Zabransky for the second time to seal the win.

Nick Larkin had two sacks on defense for BC, which had nine total tackles for a loss. Dunbar led the team with 9.5 tackles, and Ray Henderson added 5.5 as the top rush defense in the conference held the Broncos to a mere 43 yards on the ground.

BOWL GAMES

MEINEKE CAR CARE BOWL

December 30, 2006 • Charlotte, NC

Boston College 25

Navy 24

Interim Head Coach Frank Spaziani etched his name into the BC record books as the only undefeated coach in school history when he led the Eagles to a 25-24, come-from-behind victory over Navy in the Meineke Car Care Bowl. Spaziani was given the interim title after Tom O'Brien departed for N.C. State and he led the Eagles through their bowl game preparations.

Junior quarterback Matt Ryan was named the game's most valuable player after he completed 20-of-29 passes for 242 yards and one touchdown. Junior tri-captain Jolonn Dunbar was a monster on defense, racking up 14 total tackles, including 10 solos, four tackles-for-loss, a sack and a key fumble recovery.

Boston College scored first when Ryan capped off a 6-play, 37-yard drive with a two-yard keeper. Place kicker Steve Aponavicius, however, missed the first PAT of his career; the Eagles went up 6-0.

Navy responded immediately with a scoring drive of their own. Down 7-6, Ryan's pass was intercepted by Navy's Jeremy McGown. The Midshipmen capitalized when Zerb Singleton rushed five yards for a touchdown. The Eagles fought back, using a 23-yard pass from Ryan to Tony Gonzalez to get to the Navy 1-yard line. Junior Brian Toal took it in for the score one play later to bring BC back within one at 14-13.

Navy struck back quickly, driving 65 yards on six plays for a 21-13 lead. Late in the second quarter, Aponavicius connected on a 26-yard field goal to cut it to 21-16.

Early in the fourth quarter, Johnny Ayers set up an important series of events when he punted 54 yards to the Navy 6-yard line. The Eagle defense held on fourth down, and BC took over at the Navy 36. Five plays later, Ryan connected with tight end Ryan Purvis for a 24-yard scoring strike. When the two-point conversion failed, BC faced a 24-22 deficit.

With Navy trying to kill the clock with less than two minutes remaining, Dunbar recovered a Reggie Campbell fumble at the Midshipmen 36. Ryan completed a 15-yard pass to Purvis to get the Eagles within field goal range. Aponavicius connected from 37 yards as time expired and, almost miraculously, the Eagles had won yet another bowl game.

CHAMPS SPORTS BOWL

December 28, 2007 • Orlando, FL

Boston College 24

Michigan State 21

Quarterback Matt Ryan ended a brilliant career in style by leading the Eagles to an 11th victory for only the second time in school history as BC defeated Michigan State, 24-21, in the Champs Sports Bowl in Orlando.

Ryan completed 22-of-47 passes for 249 yards and three touchdowns as the Eagles kept the nation's longest bowl game winning streak alive with their eighth straight bowl win. The win also propelled the team to a No. 10 finish in the final AP college football poll of the season, BC's first top 10 finish since the 1984 season.

The Eagles entered the game heavily favored, but Michigan State got the upper hand when Devin Thomas returned the opening kickoff 79 yards to the BC 18. Two plays later, MSU quarterback Brian Hoyer completed an 18-yard touchdown pass to Kellen Davis. Less than two minutes into the game, Michigan State was ahead 7-0.

BC got a break late in the quarter when Hoyer fumbled and linebacker Mark Herzlich recovered on the MSU 11. Four plays later, Ryan connected with tight end Jon Loyte for a one yard touchdown to even the score at 7-7.

Early in the second quarter, the Eagles put together an impressive 10-play, 70-yard drive that culminated with a 29-yard touchdown completion from Ryan to Rich Gunnell. The Eagles took a 14-7 lead. Late in the quarter, however, Michigan State drove to the BC 22-yard-line, where place-kicker Brett Swenson connected on a 39-yard field goal. The Spartans closed the gap to 14-10 at halftime.

BC's first drive of the second half stalled. Michigan State took over at its own 40-yard-line and drove to the BC eight, but after facing first-and-goal, the Eagle defense held and forced a 23-yard field goal that brought the Spartans within one.

On BC's next series, the Eagles drove to the Michigan State 11. Steve Aponavicius connected on a 28-yard field goal that pushed BC's lead back to 17-13.

Entering the fourth quarter with only a four-point cushion, the Eagles gave themselves some breathing room when Ryan connected with Gunnell on a 68-yard touchdown with 9:21 remaining in the game.

The Eagles held on to their 24-13 lead until late in the game. Michigan State got a break when Spartan Greg Jones sacked Matt Ryan, causing a fumble that was recovered by MSU's Oren Wilson. Michigan State began a drive in excellent field position (the BC 37) and converted three plays later. Hoyer threw a 14-yard touchdown pass to Deon Curry, then completed a two-point conversion pass to Kellen Davis to cut BC's lead to 24-21.

Michigan State got one last opportunity to pull the upset, taking over with 2:37 left in the game. But on first down, BC's Paul Anderson intercepted a Hoyer pass and returned it to the MSU 29, allowing the Eagles to run out the clock.

BOWL GAMES

MUSIC CITY BOWL

December 31, 2008 • Nashville, TN

Vanderbilt 16
Boston College 14

Vanderbilt won a bowl game for the first time in exactly 53 years when Bryant Hahnfeldt kicked a 45-yard field goal with 3:26 left to beat Boston College 16-14 in the Music City Bowl.

Vanderbilt hadn't even played in a bowl since 1982 and the win gave the Commodores (7-6) their first winning season since then, too.

Boston College (9-5) snapped the nation's longest bowl winning streak after eight straight games in its 10th consecutive bowl appearance. The Eagles also missed a chance at finishing with at least 10 wins for a third straight season.

The Eagles got the ball twice after Hahnfeldt's third field goal, but had to punt the first time, then Myron Lewis picked off Dominique Davis with 1:36 left.

Vanderbilt had some of its stars of seasons past cheering from the sideline in Denver Broncos quarterback Jay Cutler with offensive lineman Chris Williams and receiver Earl Bennett here from the Chicago Bears. PGA Tour golfer Brandt Snedeker also was on hand hoping for his alma mater's first bowl win since the 1955 Gator Bowl.

They didn't see much offense against a Boston College defense that came in ranked sixth in the nation in yards allowed and tops in the country in turnovers recovered. Vandy scored its lone touchdown when freshman Sean Richardson fell on a punt that bounced off the left knee of BC's Paul Anderson with 10:35 left in the third. Officials huddled, then ruled it a touchdown and a replay review upheld the decision.

Vanderbilt played musical chairs at quarterback, giving redshirt freshman Larry Smith his first career start in the program's biggest game in decades. Chris Nickson also played, and Mackenzi Adams even got in for one play -- on which he was roughed by Eagles linebacker Mark Herzlich to help set up Hahnfeldt's winning kick.

The difference came from Vandy punter Brett Upson. The bowl MVP averaged 42.6 yards on nine punts with a long of 58. A Vanderbilt defense that ranked second in the Southeastern Conference for interceptions had two more picks for the game's only turnovers.

Davis, in only his third career start, put the Eagles up 14-13 with a 55-yard TD pass to Colin Larmond Jr. with 6:38 remaining.

The Commodores opened by scoring field goals of 42 and 26 yards from Hahnfeldt for a 6-0 lead. But the Eagles led 7-6 at halftime thanks to Davis' 4-yard TD pass to Montel Harris with 1:27 left in the second quarter.

The Eagles lost center Mark Tennant to an injured left elbow early in the second. Vanderbilt got its best player hurt a play later. All-SEC cornerback D.J. Moore helped break up Davis' pass to Ifeanyi Momah, and safety Ryan Hamilton intercepted the ball at the Vandy 15. But Momah rolled over Moore's left ankle, and he limped to the sideline.

Moore got his ankle taped and played in the second half.

EMERALD BOWL

December 26, 2009 • San Francisco, Calif.

USC 24
Boston College 13

Matt Barkley threw touchdown passes to Stanley Havili on Southern California's first two possessions and added a touchdown run in the fourth quarter to help the Trojans beat Boston College 24-13 in the Emerald Bowl.

Damian Williams caught 12 passes for 189 yards, setting up Havili's second score and Barkley's 1-yard sneak that gave USC a 24-13 lead with 11:53 remaining.

The Eagles stayed close with the Trojans for most of the game before Dave Shinskie threw an interception to Shareece Wright early in the fourth quarter. On the next play, Barkley connected on a 48-yard pass to Williams. Barkley scored on the next play.

USC struggled on the ground but was able to move the ball consistently through the air as Barkley often found receivers on slant patterns. Barkley was 27 of 37 for 350 yards in the second 300-yard game of his freshman season.

The Trojans got a fast start by scoring touchdowns on their two possessions with passes from Barkley to Havili to go up 14-0. But USC didn't score again in the half, with Barkley throwing an interception deep in BC territory to end one potential scoring drive.

The Eagles got right back into the game with a 7-yard run by Montel Harris. Steve Aponavicius hit the upright on the extra point attempt, ending a streak of 81 straight makes since late in the 2007 season.

BC got another score late in the half. Shinskie connected with Rich Gunnell on a 61-yard TD pass on the next play to make it 14-13.

Gunnell finished with six catches for 130 yards, breaking Pete Mitchell's school record for yards receiving with 2,659 in his career.

Harris finished with 102 yards on 23 carries for his fifth straight 100-yard game, but BC struggled to move the ball in the second half. The Eagles had just 19 yards in the third quarter and never mounted a sustained drive in the second half until the game had been decided.

BOSTON COLLEGE

Boston College was founded in 1863 by the Society of Jesus to serve the sons of Boston's Irish immigrants. It was the first institution of higher education to be founded in the city of Boston. Today, it is one of the foremost universities in the nation, with a coeducational enrollment of 14,500 undergraduate and graduate students. Boston College has drawn students from all 50 states and more than 80 countries.

Boston College has grown not just in size, but also in stature and diversity. Today, it is ranked among the top 34 national universities by US News & World Report. Its Graduate School of Social Work is listed among the nation's top 15, also by US News, while the graduate programs of its Lynch School of Education are among the top 20 and its Connell School of Nursing and Law School are among the top 30. In addition, Bloomberg/BusinessWeek ranks the Carroll School of Management 9th in the "Top Undergraduate Business Programs 2010." Boston College is among the nation's most selective universities, with nearly 30,000 applications received for its 2,250-member Class of 2014, and is numbered among the top American private research universities.

After more than a century of growth and evolution, Boston College holds fast to the ideals that inspired its Jesuit founders. The University today remains focused on its mission of helping students to develop their minds and talents while providing them with the motivation and compassion to use those talents in the service of others.

BOSTON COLLEGE

Today, the Boston College motto "ever to excel" also extends to a broad array of extracurricular activities and opportunities ranging from sports to the arts. Athletics is integral to the University's focus on the development of the whole person in body as well as in mind and spirit. BC offers 31 men's and women's varsity sports, all of which compete at the NCAA Division I level, and annually has one of the highest graduation rates in Division IA.

BC offers a wide variety of resources that enrich intellectual and cultural life beyond the campus gates. Among these are the Jesuit Institute; Center for Ignatian Spirituality; Roche Center for Catholic Education; Church in the 21st Century Center; Boisi Center for Religion and American Public Life; Center for Human Rights and International Justice; Center for Christian-Jewish Learning; Winston Center for Leadership and Ethics; Center on Wealth and Philanthropy; Center for Retirement Research; Sloan Center on Aging and Work; Center for the Study of Testing, Evaluation and Educational Policy; TIMSS and PIRLS International Study Center; Center for International Higher Education; Burns Library of Rare Books and Special Collections; Robsham Theater Arts Center; McMullen Museum of Art; Center for Child, Family and Community Partnerships; Center for Corporate Citizenship; Center for Work and Family; Center for Irish Programs; and Weston Observatory.

"Deeply rooted in its Catholic and Jesuit origins, Boston College offers an education that is distinctive in spirit and content, that is doubly rich with the best of human thought and with the profound insights of faith," writes Reverend William P. Leahy, SJ, who assumed the presidency of Boston College in 1996. "We believe that Boston College provides a transforming experience for young men and women."

A continued expression of this philosophy, based on the Jesuit principle of cura personalis, or care for the individual, is the faculty's dedication to teaching. BC faculty members have been honored for their teaching by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Education, while the University's overall commitment to teaching has been ranked among the nation's top 20, also by US News & World Report.

A Boston College education focuses not only on intellectual development, but also on personal, spiritual and physical development. Students are asked to use their abilities, education and acquired skills to help others in need, whether in Boston or Belize. For example, each year, BC undergraduates give some 550,000 hours of community service in the Boston area, while more than 650 students trade vacation for service during Spring Break. Nearly 2,000 students take part in retreats and spiritual formation activities annually.

PRESIDENT

WILLIAM P. LEAHY, S.J.

William P. Leahy, S.J. became the 25th president of Boston College on July 31, 1996. Born in Omaha, he grew up on his family's farm near Imogene, Iowa. After one year of college at Creighton University, he entered the Wisconsin Province of the Society of Jesus in 1967. He received a bachelor's degree in philosophy and a master's degree in United States history from Saint Louis University in 1972 and 1975, respectively. Between 1975 and 1979, he studied theology at the Jesuit School of Theology in Berkeley, California, earning a master's degree in divinity and a master's degree in sacred theology while there. Ordained a priest in 1978, he completed doctoral studies in United States history at Stanford University in 1985.

Father Leahy joined the department of history at Marquette University in 1985 and became a tenured associate professor there six years later. In July 1991, he was named executive vice president at Marquette, where he served until being named president of Boston College in 1996.

During his years at Boston College, Father Leahy has presided over an institution that has solidified its position among the nation's best and most selective national universities. Since 1996, BC's endowment, sponsored research grants and student financial aid have doubled, and the percentage of student applicants accepted has fallen from 41 percent to 27 percent, while SAT scores have risen by more than 130 points. In addition, 100 full-time faculty members have been added, minority student enrollment in undergraduate programs has climbed from 18 percent to 26 percent and annual cash gifts to the University have increased from $24 million to $95 million.

During his presidency, undergraduate applications to Boston College have grown from 16,500 to 30,000, making BC the fifth most-applied to private university in the United States. Currently, the University enrolls students from all 50 states and 80 countries, and its undergraduates have earned more than 250 prestigious fellowships, including two Rhodes Scholarships. Student-athletes at BC succeed in balancing the demands of academics and athletics, and BC consistently ranks among those universities with the highest NCAA graduation rates.

Most recently, the Boston College community has been engaged in a comprehensive assessment and planning effort that resulted in a 10-year Strategic Plan. This plan will build on Boston College's strengths and accomplishments of the past and will focus additional resources on undergraduate liberal arts education and formation, as well as integrated science research and teaching. The University also intends to increasingly apply the strengths of its professional schools to resolving critical societal issues, and foster even more international links. In addition, Boston College intends to remain faithful to its Jesuit, Catholic heritage and to become the leading Catholic university and theological center in the world.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

GENE DEFILIPPO

Since Gene DeFilippo became Director of Athletics in September of 1997, he has led the BC athletics program to an unprecedented period of innovation, growth, fundraising, athletic and academic success. He also led the program through one of the most significant periods in its history as it transitioned to full membership in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Under DeFilippo's leadership, Boston College student-athletes' achievements in the classroom have become an immense source of pride for the University and its supporters. Twenty-one Boston College sports teams received a perfect Graduation Success Rate score of 100, according to data released by the NCAA last November. That figure represents the most teams with a perfect 100 score of any Division I intercollegiate athletics program in the country. Last year, 379 BC student-athletes maintained a grade point average of 3.0 or better, earning the Athletic Director's Award for Academic Excellence. BC's graduation rate for all student-athletes has consistently ranked in the nation's top ten.

DeFilippo initiated an impressive overhaul of BC's athletics facilities that includes new football practice facilities, a total renovation of Conte Forum, including a new sound system, floor and video boards, new soccer, field hockey and lacrosse facilities on the Newton campus, new Field Turf for Alumni Stadium, and an air-inflated bubble to cover the stadium turf to provide an indoor practice facility for all sports during the winter months.

DeFilippo was instrumental in raising money to build the privately funded $27 million, 72,000-square-foot Yawkey Athletics Center, which houses the football program, the Office of Learning Resources for Student-Athletes, and a large function area for general University use. After football moved into the Yawkey Center, BC undertook a multi-million dollar renovation Conte Forum to provide additional locker room and office space for many of BC's 31 varsity sports.

DeFilippo renamed the Athletics Association's fundraising arm (formerly Blue Chips) in honor of longtime Athletics Director Bill Flynn. Alumni, parents and friends of Boston College contributed more than $27 million during the past year (this total includes an extraordinary payment towards a capital project). The 4,600 donors to the Flynn Fund prove that there is strength in numbers; nearly 700 alumni, parents and friends have given to BC Athletics for at least 10 consecutive years.

Anne and Gene DeFilippo cemented their commitment to Boston College by announcing their pledge of $100,000 to endow a scholarship. The scholarship will be awarded annually to a female student-athlete who demonstrates outstanding academic achievement and financial need.

In athletics competition, DeFilippo has overseen some of the most successful seasons in Boston College Athletics history. During the 2009-10 season, the football team appeared in a school-record 11th consecutive bowl game and the men's ice hockey team captured its fourth national championship (its third since 2001). In 2008, the men's soccer team captured both the ACC regular-season and tournament championships and entered the NCAA Men's Soccer Tournament as the overall No. 1 seed.

From 1993-97, DeFilippo served as director of athletics at Villanova University. He served as Associated

Director of Athletics at the University of Kentucky from 1987-93, Director of Athletics at the University of South Carolina-Spartanburg from 1984-87 and Director of Administrative Services at Vanderbilt University from 1983-84.

His coaching experience includes three years as offensive backfield coach at Vanderbilt (1980-82), which included the 1982 Hall of Fame Bowl. From 1975-79, he was offensive coordinator at Youngstown State University, during which time the team won two consecutive Mid-Continent Conference championships, 1978-79. In 1973-74, he was graduate assistant football coach for the University of Tennessee, coaching in the 1973 Gator Bowl and 1974 Liberty Bowl.

A 1973 graduate of Springfield College with a Bachelor of Science degree, DeFilippo earned three varsity letters as a quarterback in football during his undergraduate career. He received a master's degree in educational administration from the University of Tennessee in 1974.

DeFilippo and his wife, Anne, are the parents of three children – Christine Eldred (married to Matt Eldred), John and Mary.

The DeFilippo Family – Matt and Christine (DeFilippo) Eldred, Anne, Gene, Mary and John.

TRADITIONS

SUPERFANS

As juniors in the 1997-98 school year, Jeff Bridge and Chris Millette embarked on a mission that would change the atmosphere at Boston College football, basketball and hockey games. The two fans started to plan a way to make games at BC more exciting. They created a "Gold Rush Game" and sold gold "Superfans" T-shirts for just a few dollars in the BC Bookstore. Today, the gold-clad "BC Superfans" can be seen en masse.

THE GRIDIRON CLUB EAGLE

In celebration of BC's 50th season in Alumni Stadium, the Boston College Gridiron Club made a generous contribution to fund a "Gridiron Club Eagle" tradition display adjacent to the team's locker room. At each home game, when the team emerges from the locker room, each member touches the eagle in honor of all the student-athletes, coaches and fans who have played a role in establishing BC's proud football tradition. The eagle was unveiled before the 2006 thrilling double-overtime win over Clemson.

THE EAGLE WALK

Before every home game, the Eagles Marching Band and cheerleaders lead the team on the "Eagle Walk," from Corcoran Commons to Alumni Stadium, as gathering fans cheer on the team.

EAGLE NICKNAME

The Eagle nickname and mascot were conceived by Rev. Edward McLaughlin, S.J. Fr. McLaughlin, incensed at a Boston newspaper cartoon depicting the champion BC track team as a cat licking clean a plate of its rivals, penned a passionate letter to the student newspaper, The Heights, in 1920. "It is important that we adopt a mascot to preside at our pow-wows and triumphant feats," Fr. McLaughlin wrote. "And why not the eagle, symbolic of majesty, power and freedom? Its natural habitat is the high places. Surely the Heights is made to order for such a selection."

MAROON AND GOLD

In the mid-1880s, a committee of students was appointed to determine which hue would best represent BC. After considering the colors of rival Jesuit institutions – Holy Cross's purple, Fordham's maroon, Georgetown's blue and gray – the committee selected two of the Papal colors, maroon and gold. The student body unanimously approved.

MARCHING BAND

More than 150 strong, the Eagles Marching Band is under the direction of Director of Bands Sebastian Bonaiuto and Assistant Director David Healey. The band warms up with the traditional pregame march across campus, followed by a concert at Shea Field, where BC fans gather for tailgating. Then it's off to Alumni Stadium, where the band does its part to help the Eagles emerge victorious.

CHEERLEADERS

Under the supervision of Coach Lauren Belden, the cheerleaders are devoted to the traditions of BC and its school spirit. The cheerleaders have grown to include two squads, an all-girl squad consisting of 20 members and a co-ed squad consisting of 14 members. The cheerleaders perform at home and away football games.
